

GERMANS ON OFFENSIVE IN CHAMPAGNE SERBS LOSE IMPORTANT BATTLE ON BULGARIANS' RIGHT WING

Wilson Turns To Congress To Avert Strike

Allies Claim Repulse Of Germans On West Front

London, August 26.—While determinedly resisting the allied advance on the Somme front in Northern France, the Germans are launching strong attacks in other sectors of the western battle line, the latest offensive movement reported being in the Champagne region.

Near Tahure, in the Champagne, the scene of some of the hardest fighting in the French offensive of last September, German troops last night charged French positions and succeeded in penetrating them. Subsequently they were driven out, Paris declares.

This attack followed quickly upon an assault by the Germans on the point of the St. Mihiel front, southeast of Verdun, which the French repelled by a counter-attack and was carried out simultaneously with attacks in the region of Verdun itself and along the Somme front.

The point selected for the Verdun offensive was between Fleury and Thiaumont where the French secured their recent advance.

The Germans, although they subjected the French lines to a heavy bombardment, were unable to make any gains, according to Paris.

On the Somme the German counter thrust was directed at Hill 121, near Maurepas. This attack also was repulsed, the Paris bulletin declares.

Military activity is developing in the Balkans.

Sofia reports an important victory over the Serbians on the Bulgarian right wing and announces that on the other flank the Bulgarians have reached the Aegean coast.

Balkan political developments are being followed with intense interest, particularly the attitude of Rumania. Despatches today indicate further military preparation by this kingdom, including an increase of the extraordinary credit for the army by 600,000,000 francs.

Vienna claims the checking of Russian attempts to advance in the Carpathians toward the Hungarian border, but Petrograd asserts that further gain in this region has been made by the Russians.

Serbs Lose In Big Battle

Sofia, August 26.—(Via London)—After severe fighting on the Bulgarian right wing of the Macedonian front, the Serbians have been defeated with very heavy losses and compelled to retire, the war office announced today. Eighteen consecutive attacks were made by the Serbians.

In the eastern end of the front Bulgarian forces have reached the Greek Aegean coast and put British cavalry detachments to flight. Several villages have been occupied by the Bulgarians.

Rumanian Army Credit Increased

Amsterdam, August 26.—(Via London)—By decree of the Rumanian council of ministers, published in the Monitor, the credit of the army is increased from 200,000,000 francs to 600,000,000 francs, according to a telegram from Bucharest today. The universal announces that General Paraskivess has been appointed director of munitions, adds the despatch, and that General Popovic, inspector general of Cavalry, has been appointed to command the first army corps in succession to General Averescu.

Say Guarantees Not Sufficient

Athens, August 26.—(Via Paris)—The present political and military situation says the Paris has resulted in an exchange of views among the entente powers regarding the attitude to be taken towards Greece. It is questioned by entente diplomats, the newspaper states, whether the measures agreed to by Greece in response to the demands of the allies, including demobilization of the army and the government offering all necessary guarantees for benevolent neutrality are sufficient in view of the situation.

Could Not Receive Kaiser's Embassy

Paris, August 26.—According to information from diplomatic sources, says a wireless despatch from Bern, Emperor William, of Germany, wrote to King Ferdinand, of Rumania, that he intended to send Duke Albrecht, of Mecklenburg, on a special mission to him with regard to the position of Rumania.

King Ferdinand replied, adds the despatch, that the mission would be inopportune because, as a constitutional monarch, he would be obliged to refer the envoy to his ministers and in these circumstances require that any communication from the German government should be received through ordinary diplomatic channels.

Prussian Guard Repulsed At Thiepval

London, August 26.—A heavy attack made by the Prussian guard against British positions at Thiepval, on the Somme front, was repulsed by the Worcestershire and Wiltshire regiments, it was officially announced this afternoon. Near Monquet farm the British made a gain of 400 yards. German trenches along the Courcelle, Thiepval road were captured.

"DEFENDING SQUADRONS" ARE DESTROYED; "INVADING ARMY" LANDED IN THE U. S.

Washington, D. C., August 26.—The defending squadrons under Rear Admiral Helm have been "destroyed" by the hostile fleet under Admiral Mayo in the navy war game and this afternoon the army was being landed in theory on the shores of Long Island. Admiral Helm's submarine flotilla which has already sustained severe losses, was the only portion of the defending fleet remaining to contest the landing. The submarines were concentrated at Fire Island, 25 miles from the scene of the Theoretical landing operations at 9 o'clock this morning. Four of the 17 under water

BRITISH NAVAL SHIP IS SUNK BY ENEMY

London, Aug. 26.—The torpedoing in the North Sea of a British naval auxiliary with the loss of 23 men was announced officially today.

All Ohioans To Speak At Convention

Columbus, O., August 26.—Ohio Democratic leaders have decided that the state convention, Sept. 7, can be held without outside orators and all speakers at the meeting, it is said, will be Ohioans. Following President Wilson's announcement that he will be unable to attend the convention, Senator Ollie James, of Kentucky, and former Governor Martin H. Glynn, of New York, have sent word that they will not be able to address the Ohio meeting.

It is said the Maine election is largely responsible for the dearth of speakers at this time, as the state election there on September 20, is calling out practically all the speakers of national note in an effort to hold the state in line.

PLAN TO ADVANCE DAY ONE HOUR

Pittsburgh, Pa., August 26.—A movement to conserve one hour of sunshine every day in the year, for every man, woman and child in the United States, was announced today by the executive committee of the Pittsburgh chamber of commerce, which will carry the matter to the U. S. chamber of commerce with the plea that it be submitted to a referendum of the 250,000 business men who compose that body. The plan is to have clocks throughout the country advanced one hour, thus allowing everybody to begin the working day an hour earlier and quit an hour earlier. As all sections would be affected, the system, the chamber argues, would not interfere with time regulation as provided by the four zones of standard time.

French Have Force To Exterminate Germans Found In Trenches Claim Teutons

Berlin, August 26.—(wireless to Sayville)—The charge that the French have an organized force whose duty it is to exterminate all the Germans found in captured trenches is made in a statement issued today by the Overseas News Agency, was as follows:

"The French some time ago introduced a new fighting system which is the most cowardly and flagrant violation of the laws of war developed up to this time. Coincident reports confirm the fact, not known until now, that within companies special detachments have been formed with express orders to remain behind in captured trenches and exterminate all Germans yet alive. These troops are called 'Nettoyeurs.' (Cleaners or sweepers). Their equipment is not the rifle, cartridges and bayonet of other soldiers, but the revolver, knife and hand grenade.

HUGHES IN COLORADO

Denver, Colo., Aug. 26.—Charles E. Hughes entered Colorado today and following today's activities will take a brief rest before resuming his speaking tour. Today's program includes a brief address at Greeley, Colo., preceding his arrival in Denver shortly before noon.

At the reception Mrs. Florence Bayard Hilles, of Delaware, Colo., organizer of the woman's party, is to thank the nominee for his endorsement of national woman suffrage.

Port Clinton, O., August 26.—Rev. V. B. Lewis, of Warren, was chosen president of the Ohio Epworth League; Jessie Pocock, of Medina, secretary; Jay Dewitt, of Toledo, treasurer. They, with the following will comprise the executive committee: Rev. Lynn Waldorf, Cleveland; Rev. C. A. Moore, Dayton; Miss Beatie George, New Philadelphia; Miss Grace Grant, Toledo.

HAS $5 LEFT OF IMMENSE FORTUNE

New York, August 26.—Patrick Calhoun, grandson of the famous statesman, and prominently identified with the San Francisco street car system until a few years ago, testified in a receivership proceeding here, that five dollars was the only tangible asset remaining of a fortune of $14,000,000 possessed by him five years ago. Financial reverses following the earthquake and fire in San Francisco were responsible for his losses, he asserted.

MAIL SERVICE IS RESUMED ON C. & O.

Huntington, W. Va., August 26.—Officials of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad company today announced mail train service on the Cabin Creek branch has been resumed as far as Eskdale.

TO IMPROVE MISSION WORK

Sandusky, O., August 26.—The Lutheran synod voted last night to begin paying higher salaries to home missionaries and otherwise improving mission work. $60,000 was appropriated for the work.

Sets Aside "Relief Days"

Washington, D. C., August 26.—President Wilson has designated October 21 and 22 as official days for American contributions to relief for Syrian and Armenians in the war zone. November 5 has been designated as relief day for Lithuanians.

TAXATION MUDDLE LEADS TO BOYLE'S RESIGNATION

Columbus, O., August 26.—James Boyle, personal representative of Governor Willis on the State Tax Commission, has been forced to resign on account of the taxation muddle that has arisen in Franklin and other counties. The boards of revision had arbitrarily raised the tax returns of thousands of citizens and claimed they did so upon order of Boyle and associates of the State Commission. When protests became so numerous the Franklin county board was ordered to rescind its action and Boyle's resignation followed. Boyle was one of the original Willis boosters and had charge of the state press bureau two years ago. He was secretary to Governor McKinley while he was governor of Ohio and was later consul general to Liverpool.

Explorers' Ship Wrecked; Entire Party Rescued

On Board U. S. Coast Guard Cutter McCulloch, Bering Sea, August 26.—(Via wireless to Seattle)—The power schooner Great Bear, carrying the Arctic expedition headed by John Borden, of Chicago, and Captain Lane, of Seattle, was wrecked on a pinnacle rock in Bering Sea, August 10. The vessel was a total loss but the entire party landed safely on St. Matthews Island, where they were found yesterday by the McCulloch.

The members of the party aboard the Great Bear were able to land tents and provisions on St. Matthews Island and lived comfortably 15 days until the McCulloch, which had been sent from Nome on the search, found them yesterday. Mr. Borden and his entire party were taken aboard the McCulloch, which started back to Nome last night.

OWEN MAY BLOCK THE ADJOURNMENT

Washington, D. C., August 26.—Senator Owen made another futile effort in the senate today to get consideration of the corrupt practice bill. Senator Smoot, Republican, objected, but Senator Borah, declared the Republican leaders could bind him to no legislative program and said he declined to vote on both the corrupt practice and immigration bills before adjournment.

Senators Reed and Salisbury, Democrats, declared they would aid Senator Owen in an effort to get the corrupt practice bill before the senate and that precipitated a fitter over the Democratic program for adjournment next week.

Senator Reed declared the Republicans did not want to pass the corrupt practice bill "because the old guard in control of the party and the candidates want a corrupt election."

Indications were for a close fight over Senator Owen's motion for adjournment.

The Trainmen Demand Unqualified Concession Of Eight Hour Day

Washington, D. C., August 26.—With negotiations for averting the threatened railway strike practically at a deadlock, President Wilson today suddenly went to the capitol and conferred with administration leaders over the possibility of legislation.

The president conferred first with Democratic leaders Kern and Chairman Newlands, of the Interstate Commerce Commission Committee, who, it was understood, after a canvass of the congressional situation, had concluded it was feasible to get it before congress before adjournment, as an amendment to the pending bill to increase the membership of the Interstate Commerce Commission, some sort of an expression that the railways should be authorized to make rate increases to meet higher wages and to provide some sort of machinery for arbitration for similar disputes in the future, possibly along the lines of the Canadian Commission.

Just before the president went to the capitol the brotherhood leaders, impatient at the delay of the railroad executives in replying to the president's last proposal, declared that only the unqualified concession of the eight hour day or some action by congress to cause the government to operate the railroads, could prevent the threatened strike.

On all sides the president's visit to the capital was taken as indicating that the situation had reached a crisis.

Among the railway executives it was said that any plan for legislation suggested by the president would have to be considered but that the inclination of the railway heads was to stand solidly on their demand for arbitration of the present dispute.

When he finished conferring with Senators Kern and Newlands, President Wilson came to the door of his room and said to inquirers:

"I came here on certain matters of legislation. That is all I can say now."

Then after making the foregoing announcement, President Wilson returned to the White House without conferring with any one else and without making any further explanation of his visit. Senator Newlands stated positively that no joint session of congress had been arranged.

Late this afternoon the railroad executives adjourned without having finished their statement to President Wilson and their attitude was announced as unchanged.

Later it was learned at the capitol that the president told the senators the railroad executives had put it up to him to get some guarantee from congress that they would be permitted to get more revenue to meet the increase in wages. It was said no means of accomplishing that end was agreed upon.

WOMEN ARE USED TO ATTRACT BUYERS IN NEW YORK, CLAIMED

New York, Aug. 26.—District Attorney Swann announced today that he had assigned one of his assistants to make a special investigation of evidence that manufacturers here are employing women to attract buyers who come to New York from all parts of the country.

The district attorney's office has been engaged lately in an effort to stamp out the practice of "white slavery." Mr. Swann said he had unearthed enough facts to convince him that men who induce women to meet buyers may be indicted as white slavers.

The district attorney's attention was called to this alleged practice among certain manufacturers by the formal complaint made by one business man against another charging him with having enticed the complainant's wife into an evil life.

PLAGUE CASES ON DECLINE

New York, August 26.—The number of new cases of infantile paralysis continue to decrease. In the opinion of local health authorities the epidemic is on the wane and may be extinguished by the time schools are reopened in mid-September.

During the 24 hours ended at 10 a. m. today there were only 61 new cases, the lowest in a month, and 25 deaths.

Yesterday there were 94 new cases and 22 deaths.

Billy Batt In Lines Weathered

This "K. K. K." that I'm displaying used to mean "Ku-Klux-Klan", and incidentally was a holy terror, but that's all changed now. It means now, "Korn Karnival Kunk", and is the generally accepted abbreviation in these parts for a rip-roarin' good time. Here's the weather for tomorrow: Ohio—Generally fair tonight and Sunday. Kentucky—Generally fair tonight and Sunday. West Virginia—Partly cloudy tonight. Warner in east part tonight. Sunday fair.

The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says that nothing depresses her more than that Congress should even think of passing a child labor bill when everybody with a particle of humanity about him knows the poor little things ought to be in school.

Wesley Hall Wants Your Old Clothes

Soon the Wesley Hall Mission building will be in complete repair and fully equipped to fill its purpose in the city. The new fumigating rooms are now finished and ready for use. We want to ask our friends to continue to give us their cast off clothing, hats, shoes, etc. The coming winter will no doubt be very hard on poor people. Prices on all kinds of foods and clothing are going higher. This being the outlook no family ought to waste or destroy their old clothing. We are in need of it for use in our industrial stores. Scores of our poor customers are now clamoring for this kind of clothing. We want to ask the readers of the Times both in the city and out to give their cast off clothing of any kind. If it is old, soiled and even ragged we want it. Our poor workers will be glad to repair it. We are in urgent need of a thousand pair of second hand shoes, no matter how old or poor they may be. We have now an experienced shoe repair man, who repairs and puts them in condition to wear. If readers of this article have the above mentioned goods and will contribute them to our work please call Phone 409 B and our wagon will call at the door for them. We want your waste paper, books and magazines. Don't throw them in the alley but save them for the mission wagon. J. E. DIBERT.

More Money Needed In The "Safety" Fund

The city officials are debating among themselves what steps should be taken towards relieving a situation created by the public safety fund being badly overdrawn. The fund has received only $18,000 from the money the city got out of the recent distribution of tax collections. This sum is not sufficient to meet the running expenses of the department. The officials, however, appear in earnest about not spending anything in excess of that amount and it is likely one or two policemen will be dropped from the force. The safety fund has been in bad shape, officials say, ever since the three years Portsmouth was "dry," it losing the revenue derived from saloons during that period. The present administration officials say they have paid off a $40,000 indebtedness which was against the safety and general funds when they assumed charge.

McKinley School

To commemorate the memory of the late martyred president, William McKinley, the school board has decided to call the new school building to go up on Kinney's Lane the McKinley building, the city already having a Lincoln and Garfield building. The new building will contain 12 and possibly 16 rooms.

Lesson IX.—Third Quarter, For Aug. 27, 1916.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES

Text of the Lesson, Acts xx, 15-27.
Memory Verse, 24—Golden Text, Acts xx, 22—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

After the uproar of Ephesus, Paul bade an affectionate farewell to his disciples there and crossed over to Macedonia, whither Timothy and Erastus had preceded him (Acts 22: 15, 16). After all the places where he had preached the word, he and his party crossed to Troas, where he first heard the call to Macedonia. He had tarried three months in Greece, and now they made seven days at Troas (xx, 24; xvi, 8). There they had an all night preaching service, at which one young man who sat in a window slept so soundly that he fell out from the third story and was killed, but the Lord restored him through Paul, and all were comforted. Paul must have been full of overflowing messages which he felt would be like lost to him (xx, 7-12, 25). While all the party went by ship to Assos, Paul walked across country to meet them there (verse 13). While fellowship with the brethren is often refreshing, there is nothing so grand as to be alone with God, and this lonely walk would give Paul opportunity for the communion he desired.

Paul desired, if possible, to be at Jerusalem by the day of Pentecost, so instead of visiting Ephesus again he sent for the elders of the church there to meet him at Miletus, and the principal part of our lesson today is the record of his farewell address to them (verses 14-17). He reminded them that for three years he had faithfully testified to Jews and Greeks repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ, testifying the gospel of the grace of God and preaching the kingdom of God (verses 21, 24, 25). These are the truths which all need to know, and there is nothing so grand as to tell as the grace of God which brings salvation to all and justifies freely all who truly receive him (Rom. III, 24; Eph. II, 8, 9; Tit. II, 11, 12, 13).

Since all are guilty before God and the righteousness which He requires no mortal man has nor can obtain by his own efforts it is surely good news that God has provided this perfect righteousness in Christ Jesus and of few is freely to every penitent sinner (Rom. III, 19; I Cor. 1: 21; I Cor. 1: 30; Rom. 8, 41). Humility becomes us always, for we are nothing and know nothing and can do nothing apart from Him, and there is no room for boasting except in the Lord. If we realized how great is the wrath from which we have been delivered and which still rests upon and awaits those who are not saved there might be more prevailing tears on our part for lost ones about us (verse 18; I Thess. 1, 10; John III, 36). Then there is the building up or edifying of the saints as necessary for the glorifying of God on the part of His saved ones (verse 32), and nothing can do this but the word of God, which is the only food for the soul (John 17; Jer. xv, 16). Paul could say what many a preacher cannot say: "I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you. . . . I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God" (verses 20, 27). Although it is written that "all Scripture is given by inspiration of God and is profitable," that there is a special blessing upon all who read or hear the book of Revelation, that our Lord said that it was foolish not to give heed to all that the prophets had said (I Tim. III, 16; Rev. 1: 3; Luke xxiv, 27), yet there are those who turn away from all prophecy and especially from the book of Revelation and encourage others to do so. Such would do well to consider what is written of those who feed themselves instead of the flock and are called wolves, thieves, robbers, hirelings (verses 20, 30; Ezek. xxxiv; John x).

Paul was always speaking of the kingdom of God, as was also our Lord Jesus (verse 25; xxviii, 23, 31; Matt. 13; Acts 1: 3), but of all Bible topics perhaps none is more misunderstood and less understood than the kingdom, which is to be set up on this earth at the second coming of our Lord and which cannot be till He shall come, as He Himself taught (Luke xix, 11-13). Will all who read these notes please bear with me in my oft repeated assertion that this is not the age of world conversion nor of subduing all things to Christ? But, as James said at the council at Jerusalem, it is the time of taking out from the gentiles a people for His name, that so He may come again with His church, His bride, as the Messiah of Israel for their conversion as a nation, and then through them the winning of all nations (xx, 23-19).

The only business of believers is to give the good news to others as quickly as possible that the church may be completed—cause all Jews and gentiles to hear, as Paul did in Asia (xix, 10), then instruct the saved ones as to the purpose of God, that they may win others, for every sinner saved brings joy in heaven (Luke xv, 7, 10) and helps to complete the church. A readiness to earn our own living while doing this, if necessary, would be doing as Paul did (verses 34, 35). He was ready to suffer or be imprisoned or be killed, as God might will, if only he might finish his course with joy and the mastery he had received of the Lord Jesus (verses 22-24; xxi, 14). He desired only the approval of God.

Loan Advantages

10. You can pay your loan in full at any time. With our DEFINITE CONTRACT PLAN you can always do this. With a straight loan you cannot always do this. This feature is of great value if you should want to sell and the buyer should want to pay cash. Straight loans are some times sold to outside parties and this causes many inconveniences. Our loans are never sold and you will always find us at our place of business during business hours and we will assist wherever we can.

Divisions Arranged For Monster Labor Day Parade; Will Be Splendid Affair

The first Monday in September has been set apart by the American Federation of Labor, proclaimed by the president of the United States and the governor of the state as Labor Day. This year the date falls on September 4. The purpose of the day is to direct general thought toward the needs of and aspirations of the workers and to afford the workers themselves time and opportunity to consider those things which vitally concern them and their labor organization through which they are trying to secure a living wage and reasonable hours of employment.

The Portsmouth Central Labor Council will celebrate the first day of the week of September 4 by having a parade and outing at Millbrook park and continue the celebration through the entire week. The committee spent several hundred dollars for all kinds of amusements for the visitors of Millbrook park.

The union men of Portsmouth want to thank those who have been so kind and generous with their donations to labor's cause. The union men are more than anxious to have the manufacturers, business men and contractors in this city come to a friendly feeling to our various organizations and treat with organized labor in a business way, and labor is sure that the employers will find labor always ready to treat the question of issue in a gentlemanly way.

The Central Labor Council is made up of delegates representing about twenty local unions and is only a legislative body to consider matters that concern all the different crafts or trades, and carry out the slogan of the American Federation of Labor, the "injury of one is the concern of all." The Labor Day committee asks all the union men of Portsmouth and all our friends to patronize those merchants who have so liberally contributed to our cause. A complete list of the donors and the amount they donated will be sent to all union men in the city. Wishing everybody a glorious time and good luck, we remain sincerely,

LABOR DAY COMMITTEE.
William A. Abraham, Chm.
Henry A. Kuhn, Joseph
Diener, Fred Burkhardt,
James Jackson.

The first division of the parade will include police, River City band, fire department, city officials and Kora Carnival Kohorts. This division forms on Ninth street east of Chillicothe.

The second division includes Grand Marshal William A. Abraham, Chief Aide Henry Kuhn, Bricklayers, Plumbers, Visiting Unions, Engineers, Printers and Retail Clerks. This division forms on Chillicothe street south of Ninth.

The third division includes Bartenders, Brewery Workers, Cigar-makers, Painters and Electrical Workers. It forms on Chillicothe street north of Ninth.

The fourth division composes Portsmouth band, Moulders, Street Car Employees, Horseshoers, Pipefitters, Musicians and Sheet Metal Workers. This division forms on Ninth street west of Chillicothe.

Girl Was Lost

Catherine Roth, four years old, daughter of John Roth, of Third street, and who makes her home with her grandmother, Mrs. George Patton, 836 Sixth street, wandered away from home Saturday morning about 6:30 o'clock and finally landed at the New Boston mayor's office. She took a street car to the village.

Noted Woman Speaker At The First Christian

With the promise of delightful weather and with Miss Mary A. Lyons, state organizer of the C. W. B. M. as an added attraction, the attendance at the First Christian Bible school Sunday should pass well beyond the 700 mark, a figure that has not been reached in the city for some considerable time. Miss Lyons is a favorite with the people who worship at the corner of Third and Gay streets. She has been here quite a number of times and has cemented friendships that will last as long as life itself. Miss Lyons is one of the best women speakers before the American public. She has a voice that will carry to the innermost recesses of any auditorium in the country and promises to have a most interesting message. She hopes to find time to speak directly to the children, all of whom love her and hold her in the highest possible esteem. Miss Lyons will teach the lesson to the adult department and will also fill the pulpit at the morning service. That she will be accorded a splendid hearing at all services is assured.

Superintendent Charles M. Howland, who is sanguine that the summer slump is over, is hopeful that the Bible school has now set about to establish the biggest attendance records in its history. Every department is in smooth running order, with the teachers and scholars full of enthusiasm. The attendance of 645 last Sunday showed that the interest was keen and on the upward climb. Let all members try and be present tomorrow—getting ready to receive Rev. Charles Oakley, who will be back on the job on September 3 after a rest of one month.

Do not forget the social given by the W. O. W. in their hall this evening. Everybody cordially invited.

E. P. Brown, of Ohio avenue, who has been working for several months in Virginia, returned home Friday.

Mrs. Ivan Riley and children, of Ironton, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Warder of Gallia avenue.

Miss Natalie Abrams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Abrams, of Harrisonville avenue, who was operated on several days ago at the Hempstead hospital, is getting along nicely.

On Sunday evening the services will be in charge of the Woman's Union. This organization will have a most interesting program—one well worth hearing. Special songs and the best of music.

TERMINALS

Mrs. Frank Hubbard, of New Boston, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. R. J. Schultz, of Poplar street.

J. G. Gray, section laborer in the Portsmouth yards, while assisting to unload some ties from a flat car in the yards at 7 a. m., Friday, lost his balance and fell to the ground, badly bruising his left hip and arm.

H. B. Mount, of Green Bottom, W. Va., who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Boyd, of Beech street, returned home Friday.

Mrs. Anna Boyd, of Beech street, who recently underwent an operation at the Hempstead hospital, will be removed to her home Monday.

Extra 1390, in charge of Conductor E. C. Gorby and Engineer J. B. Ferrell, derailed four cars of stone and twelve cars of coal at the east end of Miner passing siding, one-half mile east of Lockbourne, Ohio. The Portsmouth and Kenova wreck cars and the B. & O. wreck cars of Chillicothe were called. The wreck cars were in charge of J. T. Carey, J. F. McMillan and J. O. Clendenen. The wreck happened at six o'clock Saturday morning and the cause is being investigated.

WATER FINE AT BEACH

Saturday and Sunday promises to be two of the best days of the season for the Peerless Beach. The water is very warm and clear and more of the bar is exposed than at any time this season. Because of these facts and the good patronage during the week the beach management, is making elaborate preparations for the week end.

The J. O. U. A. M. band has prepared an excellent program for Sunday evening's concert. The beach management extends a cordial invitation to everyone who cares to come in the afternoon, bring along their lunches and stay for the concert. There were many picnicking parties at the beach during the week.

Returns Home
Miss Cecelia Ward, of Selma, Ohio, returned to her home Thursday after a short visit with Miss Cordelia Cornutte, of Ninth street.

FALLS UNDER TRAIN

Charles Snider, aged 22 years, of New Boston, an employee of the Whitaker-Glessner Company's plant, had the fore part of his right foot so badly crushed under the wheels of a B. & O. yard train shortly before noon Saturday, that it had to be amputated later at Hempstead hospital.

B. & O. yard engine No. 1591, in charge of Engineer John Davison and Conductor Alva Houston, was coming west on Tenth street, pushing ahead a cut of seven cars. Snider was at the N. & W. depot and made an attempt to board one of the cars, but saw that some baggage trucks were in his way. He ran around them, and Engineer Davison shouted warning to him. An instant later he tried again, and brakeman Stewart Davison ordered him away. D-

Concerning the death of Mrs. Roberta Charlton Morgan, of Ironton, who had many friends in this city, where she has visited as the guest of Mrs. Geo. M. Taylor, the Irontonian says:

"The remains of Mrs. Roberta Charlton Morgan, wife of David Morgan, who died Friday morning at 6:10 o'clock at the Lakeside hospital, following an operation for goitre, performed by the noted specialist, Dr. Crile, will arrive here tonight at 8:30 on the Norfolk & Western and will be conveyed to the home of Mrs. Eleanor Morgan and the funeral services will be held there Monday."

"It was with genuine grief that the large circle of friends of Mrs. Morgan learned of her demise Friday morning, although announcement was not unexpected as her condition was critical for sometime previous to the operation. A message from the devoted husband to Ironton friends Thursday informed them that her condition was not satisfactory but they hoped that she would be able to regain her health. However, the odds were too great and she succumbed shortly after six o'clock.

"The decedent had been suffering for some time from goitre and as the best of medical treatment could not combat its ravages an operation was decided upon and Dr. Crile, one of the most successful and eminent surgeons in the county, was chosen to perform the task, so serious and delicate.

"Possessed of a gracious and charming disposition, Mrs. Roberta Charlton Morgan was beloved by all who enjoyed her acquaintance, and the announcement of her death brought grief to them and grief sincere and deep, and to the husband and little daughter, bereft of the devotion and care of a loving wife and mother, is left the burden of sorrow, and they have the heartfelt sympathy of their hundreds of friends.

"As gracious as she was beautiful, Mrs. Morgan was also a favorite socially, but her chief care was for her home and she was happy in the love of her husband and little daughter, and their grief over her demise is poignant."

Mrs. Elizabeth Shoemaker Curtis

Mrs. Elizabeth Shoemaker-Curtis, aged 36 years, formerly of this city, died suddenly at a hospital in Columbus Saturday morning at 1:30 o'clock from the effects of a surgical operation for appendicitis which she underwent Monday.

Mrs. Curtis had been a resident of Columbus for the past three or four years. Her husband, Dudley W. Curtis, a former Portsmouth contractor, died two years ago leaving her quite an estate. She leaves one son, Clifford Baker, aged 17, by a former marriage, she having been divorced from her first husband, Charles Baker.

Mrs. Curtis was born in Vinton county, the daughter of Samuel Shoemaker, who died a year ago. She is also survived by her widowed mother, Mrs. Martha Shoemaker, of this city, three sisters and two brothers: Mrs. Marguerite Fletcher, of Ray, O.; Mrs. Mary Hartman and Mrs. Isabel Shump, of this city, David Shoemaker of Portsmouth, and George R. Shoemaker, of Columbus.

Mrs. Curtis was a member of the Oakwood Methodist church, of Columbus. Her remains will be buried beside those of her late husband in Greenlawn cemetery, that city. The local relatives expect to attend the funeral, which will take place Monday.

Mrs. Sarah Shultz Orin

Mrs. Sarah Shultz Orin, who passed away at the home of her son, Mr. Clifford Orin, at McDermott on Wednesday, Aug. 23 was 72 years of age and had been a resident of Rushtown and McDermott practically her entire life.

She was married to Harmon B. Orin in 1873. Her husband died in 1888 leaving her with four children, Florence, now deceased, Grant, who is Anderson's deliveryman, Clifford, with whom the mother lived at McDermott, and Mrs. Lon Jones also of McDermott.

Mrs. Orin also leaves two brothers, Mr. Jacob Shultz of Lucasville and Mr. John Shultz of McDermott, and one sister, Mrs. Mary Schellenger of McDermott. Mrs. Orin had been failing in health for the last five years and while her death has been expected owing to her age and condition, still it was a shock to the family and neighborhood, even though it came pre-announced.

Mrs. Orin was a member of the old Methodist church of Rushtown and her life has been lived "in a house by the side of the road" where she could be a friend to all. She was well known in the community in which she lived, for her kindness and friendliness to all. Where trouble and sorrows were, there was Mrs. Orin, and the soul in need found comfort and help at her hearthstone. She always lived a quiet life and fulfilling her mission of love in a quiet way. Neighbors and friends loved her for her sincerity and her continued efforts at well-doing in the neighborhood.

The interment was at Rushtown Friday afternoon, the funeral services being in charge of Rev. Gordon of the M. E. church.

W. C. Reed

W. C. Reed passed to the Great Beyond at his home, 921 Eleventh street, at 11:30 noon Saturday, after a long illness of tuberculosis.

Mr. Reed was over 77 years of age. For a number of years he conducted a grocery in this city but of late years led a retired life. Besides his wife he leaves the following relatives: Four sons, Thomas of Henley, David of Oregon, Caster of Quincy, Ky., and Alva of Hazard, Ky.; three daughters, Mrs. Enoch Flack and Mrs. James Cade of Bertha, O., and Mrs. Ernest Smith of Illinois; one brother in Minnesota and three sisters, one in California and two of this city. He was a kind and hard working husband and had a wide circle of friends who will be sorry to learn of his death. Funeral services will be held at the home late Sunday afternoon. Burial will be made Monday forenoon in the Mt. Carmel cemetery near Harrisonville.

William Hannah

William Hannah, aged 35, a resident of Greenup, Ky., and a son of Perry Hannah, died at his home in that village Friday evening. He had been ill for many months with pulmonary trouble and just three weeks ago returned from the south, a change of climate failing to benefit his health. Mr. Hannah was an exemplary young man and leaves relatives and friends in Scioto county.

Virginia Cook

Virginia, eight months old child of Mr. and Mrs. John Cook of Star Yards died at 2 o'clock this morning after a life days illness caused by pneumonia. The funeral services will be conducted Monday afternoon at one o'clock.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, O. Office Phone 34.

The fair begins next Monday, August 28th, and closes Friday, September 1.

Dear Dolly.—Please tell me what papers are printed in Camden, O., and Dayton, O., and also who has charge of the question column in these two towns. Thanking you very kindly.

MRS. M. E. M.
There is no paper printed at Camden, Ohio. Miss Betty Fairfax has charge of the "information column" in the Dayton News.

Dear Dolly.—Will you please tell me if a girl is of age at 18, in West Virginia the same as in Ohio. Thanking you in advance, I remain.

INQUISITIVE.
I think 21 is the age limit in West Virginia.

My Dear Miss Wise.—I have a very bad complexion. There are tiny white bumps under my skin. I also have black heads and oily skin. Please advise me what to do for these things. What are the dates of the Ohio State Fair.

THANKS.
To gain a clear complexion follow these rules: Take a daily bath, exercise for an hour in the open air every day, drink at least three pints of water daily, secure sufficient sleep, eat a great deal of green vegetables and fresh fruits and rub the face over, just before washing it, with two table-spoonsful of flowers of sulphur mixed in half a pint of new milk. This mixture should stand a little while before it is used on the face.

force September, for later in the season the fruit is not so perfect, it is more juicy and full of seeds. No tomato should be used when part of it is unfit for use. This will cause them to spoil. Seal and peel tomatoes and with a sharp knife cut out the hard stem part. This is necessary as tomatoes will not keep if the hard part is left in. Fill jars with tomatoes of the same size then fill with boiling salted water after steaming for two hours. Another and perhaps easier way is to cut tomatoes into pieces and let boil five or ten minutes and then can.

Inquisitive.—The date of the Masonic picnic in 1913 was Saturday, July 13th.

Jelly Making
Jelly is generally made from fruit juice, with equal portions of juice and sugar. When jellies fail to jelly, the cause can generally be traced to the use of too ripe fruit. Wash the fruit, cut it in slices, and leave the skins on. Cook in water (if necessary), but not too much water. Drain off the juice.

This juice must be cooked for 15 or 20 minutes before adding the sugar. After the sugar is added, boil 10 to 15 minutes. If cooked more than that time it will generally become tough andropy.

SOCIETY

Mrs. T. M. Patterson gave a beautiful children's party yesterday afternoon on the lawn at her home on Ninth street, honoring her two little grand-children, Mary L. Patterson, the attractive little daughter of Rev. and Mrs. T. M. Patterson, of Ripley, and little Miss Martha Louise Patterson. Various games were indulged in on the lawn, after which the little guests were invited to the large porch, where delicious ice cream, cake and candy were served by Mrs. Patterson, assisted by Misses Helen Patterson, Miriam and Margaret Neudoerfer and Rosemary Miller. Those present were: Helen Williamson, Imogene Stalder, Jane Pressler, Janet Miller, Virginia Prag, Gladys Doty, Helen Gilbert, Katherine Knowles, Anna Sarah Barber, Jane and Esther Carlyle, Eleanor Ruggles, Marjorie Sprecher, Martha Jane Spencer, Helen Rieger, Mary Frances Jordan, Martha Frederick, Mary Frances Crawford, Gretchen and Augusta Schirrmann, Ruth Gilley, Pearl Cahill.

Mrs. Nick Shively and daughter, Ruth, will leave tomorrow for Cincinnati for a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Biggs.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Farmer and Mrs. Steven Holman will leave tomorrow for a week's visit in Detroit, Mich.

Miss Helen Dunn and guests, Miss Florence Baird and Mr. Harold Baird, of Ripley, Misses Lona Hauck, Marie Bauer, Stella McCall, Messrs. Hugh Trumper, Guy Moore, George Breese, James Pearce were a party who danced at Millbrook park last evening.

Mrs. Alan Jordan came home last night from a visit with relatives in Columbus and brought home with her Mrs. Phillips and daughter, Jean.

Mrs. Anna Trigg and daughter, Marie, of Fourth street, were guests of E. P. Adams and mother, at Buena Vista, Friday.

The Woman's Auxiliary of All Saints' church will hold a monthly meeting Thursday afternoon, at two o'clock, at the home of Mrs. John Brushart, on Second street. All members are urged to be present.

To celebrate the twelfth anniversary of the founding of the Daughters of America Lodge in Portsmouth, an outing was held in Millbrook park, Saturday. The majority of the members gathered at the park by two o'clock, the time set for the contests and races to begin. All took well-filled baskets and at six o'clock all are to gather near the Casino, where the basket supper will be held. Mrs. Lydia Hornbuckle was chairman of the committee on arrangements.

The Young Women's Home Missionary Society of Trinity church will hold a called meeting at 7:30 Monday evening at the home of Mrs. A. A. Cramer, 943 Fourth street.

Harry Denton, manager of the Salvage company, Chillicothe street, will leave Sunday morning for Cincinnati, where he will meet his wife, who is returning home from an extended visit with relatives at Chicago.

A jolly crowd of picnickers spent the day at Dressler camp, in South Portsmouth, Ky., Thursday. The crowd met at the corner of Clay street and proceeded from there to the camp with well-filled baskets. At noon the porch was covered with snowy-white table-cloths and a feast was set out fit for a king and all of his court. The camp was so perfectly beautiful that it looked to one as if the fairies and little gods had slipped around under the shade trees and prepared the dainty and appetizing dinner, each and every one ate with a ravenous appetite, especially Mrs. Crookshanks, Mrs. Geiger and Mrs. Watkins, whom all had to assist in getting away from the table.

After the dinner had all been cleared away, some of the pretty little hens who had been in the habit of having a beauty nap, were lying on the beds, when Mrs. Staley and others decided to sprinkle them with water from the fountain of love and beauty, and by that time Mrs. Crookshanks arose in time to save herself, and splash went the water into Mrs. Staley's face, instead of on the beauty-seekers.

Those coming in the afternoon were met by a committee carrying frying-pans, rolling-pins, buckets, kettles and were given a hearty welcome (!).

The afternoon was spent in games, mountain climbing and story-telling, and Mrs. Watkins, who was so busy climbing a barbed-wire fence, fell and scratched her hand.

Miss Katherine Selsor, of this city, and Miss Marie Allen, a little Southern beauty of Hinton, W. Va., spent the afternoon entertaining Mr. W. R. Weeks and Mr. Edward Ross.

After awhile a wood fire was made and beans, corn, sweet potatoes and corn-bread were cooked to add to the supper. The vegetables were fine, but could not come up to the corn-bread made by Lorena Baker and Minnie DeLung, which was delicious, with soda streaks running through it that looked like Haley's cornet.

Those going were: Mrs. L. W. Crookshanks, Mrs. J. W. Baker, Mrs. Lizzie Rogers, Mrs. E. A. Chapman and daughter, Mrs. E. R. Malcolm and son, Mrs. U. L. Parsons and children, Mrs. Frank Geiger, Mrs. Chas. Bush and sons, Edward and Elmer, Mrs. W. C. Staley and daughter, Helen, Mrs. Mabel Watkins and daughter, Ruby, Mrs. Henry Rimmer, Mrs. Chas. Shela and son, Charles, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Woods and children, the Misses Katherine Selsor, Wannie Billups, Garnet Woods, Mary E. Brook, Chloel Garrison, Lottie Lindsay, Emma Bauer, Elizabeth Lane, Lillian Nye, Gaynell Crookshanks, Minnie DeLung, Marie Allen, Mr. W. R. Weeks and Mr. Ed Ross. At 7:30 p. m. they departed for their homes, tired, but happy.

ONE WHO WAS THERE.
City Solicitor Anselm Skelton will be the host of a dinner party at the Baker House in Wheelersburg tonight. He was the loser in a match golf game with Charley Mitchell recently and as a result he will have to furnish a chicken dinner for the following guests: Messrs. Philo S. The following young people went to Crichton's Inn today, and enjoyed a picnic supper, Misses Audrey Nourse, Louise Gibbs, Hazel Edwards, Edna Korth, Margaret Quinn, Alta Marsh, Edith West, Florence Daehler, Geneva Huddleson, Madge Rader and Mildred Purdum, Messrs. Vaughn Finney, Harry Goodnight, Philip Danz, John Blum, Carl Blankemeyer, Talmage Edwards, Earl Brand, John Purdum, Lester Morgan, Fred Klingman and John Higgins.

Miss Mildred Purdum delightfully entertained with a dance at Millbrook Park last evening in honor of her guest, Miss Madge Rader, of Chillicothe. The party consisted of the following: Misses Mildred Purdum, Madge Rader, Bess Huddleson, Anna Tracy, Edna Korth, Jessie and Louise Gibbs, Florence Daehler, Edythe Siggers, of Washington, D. C., Mary Anderson, of Seattle, Wash., and Geneva Huddleson; Messrs. Joseph Babcock, Fred Klingman, W. M. Bell, Richard Kendall, Massie Foley, Carl Goff, Vancil Alexander, Conrad Perkins, Harold Paul, of Columbus, Elton Schmidt, John Purdum. After dancing the party went to Miss Purdum's home, where delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. Gilbert Kendall is expected home today from Athens, where he has been employed with a wholesale grocery house.

Mr. Charles Connors and sister, Anna, of Seventh street, who are visiting their grand-parents in Indiana, are expected home tomorrow.

Miss Jean Bertram entertained last evening in honor of her guests, Misses Frances Hathaway, of Chillicothe, and Ethel Wharton. The other guests were Misses Ruth Conger, Irene Pugh, Messrs. Wilbur Breth, of Chillicothe, Follan Kline, George Aarons, C. E. Korns and Jack Rose. The evening was delightfully spent in playing cards and dancing.

The marriage of Miss Elsie B. Smith to Mr. Chester Riggles will take place on Monday evening, at eight o'clock. Rev. Charles Chandler will perform the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Ross will be the attendants. Miss Smith is the daughter of Mrs. Martha Smith, of Twelfth street. Mr. Riggles is employed with the Wolf Clothing Co. They will go to Columbus, the Lakes and stop at Cincinnati to attend the races.

The Queen Esther Circle of Bigelow church will meet with Miriam Neudoerfer, 3311 Ninth street, at seven o'clock Monday evening. This is the month for paying dues.

The Hilltop W. C. T. U. will hold a Matrons' Silver Medal Contest Tuesday evening, August 29, at the New Boston Baptist church. A splendid program has been prepared, and everyone is welcome. No admission charged.

Mrs. Frances McColm had us six o'clock dinner guests yesterday her relatives, Miss Fannie Cole and Mrs. Howard B. Cooper. Rev. Cooper and family are returning from their vacation along the lakes. He and his two sons have gone to their home in Delaware, where he has charge of St. Paul's M. E. church. Mrs. Cooper stopped off at Portsmouth for a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. U. Cole, of Robinson avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bertram, daughter, Jean, and guests, Frances Hathaway and Ethel Wharton, were entertained at luncheon yesterday at the home of Misses Kate and Pearl Monaghan.

Outfielder Earl Smith Purchased By The Chicago Cubs

Portsmouth Boy Sold By Omaha, Neb., Team; Was Sensation Of League

According to telegraphic information sent out of Chicago Outfielder Earl Smith, of the Omaha Western league team, and a son of Sheriff and Mrs. E. W. Smith, of this city, has been purchased by the Chicago Nationals. He will join the club at the end of the Western league season.

Smith has been the sensation of the Western league this season. His fielding and consistent slick work has featured many of the Omaha games and for two weeks it is said four scouts have been getting a line on the Portsmouth boy. The Cubs offered the best price and secured the services of Smith who at one time played with the Milwaukee A. A. team.

Proficient in every department of the game, an ambitious young player, who has always been in position to give his club his best services, Earl will make good in Cub garb providing he is given a thorough trial. He is a natural batsman, is very fast on the bases and is imbued with a winning spirit. That he will make good goes without saying.

Sensational Outfielder of the Omaha Western league team, who was sold to the Chicago Cubs at a fancy price.

THORPE LEADS IN STOLEN BASES

Clemens, St. Paul, leads in the American Association, though he has played little more than half the games. Thorpe, Milwaukee, holds the lead in stolen bases, with 43; Bradley, Columbus, and Holland, Minneapolis, in sacrifice hits with 28 each; Demmitt, Columbus, in home runs with eleven and in total bases with 210; Evans, Toledo, in runs scored, with 79, and Kansas City in club batting with 473.

Leading hitters in the association are, Clemens, St. Paul, 331; Becker, Kansas City, 335; Beall, Milwaukee, 325; Chapelle, Columbus, 322; Hargrave, Kansas City, 318; Lewis, Kansas City, 313; Deal, Kansas City, 309; Lelievre, Kansas City, 305; Demmitt, Columbus, 300; Evans, Toledo, 299.

Cobb Gains On Speaker

In the American league Cobb gained on Speaker in the chase for hitting homers and ran up his stolen bases to 40. Pipp, New York, took the lead run lead away from Baker with 12 runs. Cobb, Chicago, and Chapman, Cleveland, are tied for the lead in sacrifice hits with 28 each; Jackson is ahead in total bases with 232; Cobb in runs scored with 86 and Speaker in the chase for hitting homers and ran up his stolen bases to 40.

Leading hitters are, Speaker, Cleveland, 330; Cobb, Detroit, 323; Jackson, Chicago, 320; Gardner, Boston, 311; Ruth, Cleveland, 310; Strunk, Philadelphia, 306; Sisler, St. Louis, 301; Felsch, Chicago, 298; Burns, Detroit, 293; Shotton, St. Louis, 292.

Game At Millbrook

The Steel Plant team will play the recently organized New Boston Cubs at Millbrook, Sunday afternoon. Lewis, who formerly pitched for the Nonpareils, has been signed by the Steel Plant nine and will twist his first game at 2:30 o'clock. Cents, 15c; Ladies 10c.

DAUBERT STILL LEADS

Chicago, Aug. 26.—Jack Daubert, though kept out of the game by "retardation" for several days, has regained the lead among National league batters and Hornsby, the St. Louis sensation, is in second place, according to figures published today, including games of last Wednesday.

Daubert, Pittsburgh, is still in front among base stealers, with 42 thefts to the credit of Plack, Chicago, leads in sacrifice hits with 32; Williams, Chicago, in home runs with ten; Hornsby and Wheat, Brooklyn are tied for the lead in total bases with 186 each, and Burns, New York, is in front in runs scored with 71. Brooklyn leads in club batting with 491.

Leading batters who have played half the games of their club: Daubert, Brooklyn, 325; Hornsby, St. Louis, 321; Wagner, Pittsburgh, 319; Robertson, New York, 317; Chase, Cincinnati, 313; Wheat, Brooklyn, 306; Hinchman, Pittsburgh, 298; Long, St. Louis, 293; Zimmerman, Chicago, 290; Stock, Philadelphia, 289.

Piketon Won Game 7 To 4

(Waverly Republican Herald.) Tom Teichert, the pitcher, assisted with a home run by Wix Sank, both of the Waverly Scouts, helped the Piketon baseball team to beat the Portsmouth team by a score of 7 to 4 in the latter city last Thursday.

WILL STAGE BOXING CONTEST IN MILLBROOK PARK ON LABOR DAY

A ten round boxing match will be staged in front of the big grand stand in Millbrook Park on Labor Day. Mayor Davis, of the village, gave his consent to the promoters to go ahead with their plans and the contest will be advertised in all adjacent counties.

Battler Brown and George Watson, two sensational lightweights of Columbus, will be the principals in the main bout of ten rounds. They are considered two of the best men of their weight in Central Ohio and are sure to put up a rattling good mill.

The promoters are also figuring on staging a battle royal before the feature bout is pulled off.

An elevated ring will be erected in front of the grand stand and every feature of the scrap will be carefully looked after.

The Movies

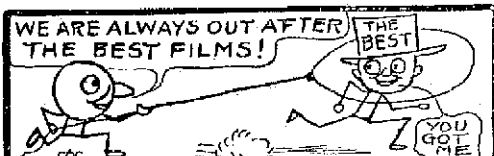

Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne in "Pennington's Choice" Columbia Tonight

Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne, the two most popular stars on the screen, who are now appearing exclusively in Metro pictures, will be seen here at the Columbia tonight in the five-part feature picture, "Pennington's Choice." This production will be a decided treat for motion picture patrons, for neither Mr. Bushman nor Miss Bayne ever appeared in any previous picture to their advantage. In the role of a wealthy young New York clubman, who must prove his worth among the woodsmen in Northern Canada, before the girl of his choice will consent to marry him, Mr. Bushman has the greatest opportunity of his career.

Miss Bayne is equally as well suited to her part, first shown in a New York drawing-room and afterward as her "supposed twin sister," romping wild in the Canadian woods. Never before have these two stars had such an opportunity to prove their versatility.

A novelty will be the introduction of J. J. Jeffries, in a boxing scene with Mr. Bushman.

A Big Week at the Columbia Next Week

"Every day a big day" is the Markey featured in "The Phantom" and that makes "The Phantom" a wonderful live part every week a big week also, and next week's program not only promises a big week but guarantees something extra good each succeeding day, starting on Monday with that good reliable "Triangle" program featuring De Wolf Hopper in a five reel production of "Casey At The Bat" and Fay Tincher in "Belinda's Bluff" a two part Keystone comedy.

Tuesday brings Marguerite Snow and Hamilton Ravelle in "The Half Million Bribe," an interesting five part picture story direct from the Metro studios.

Dainty Vivian Martin will be seen on Wednesday in "A Modern Thelma," a real master production from the celebrated William Fox program.

On Thursday you will see the second "Triangle" program of the week and a dandy at that, with Frank Keenan and Enid

Blanche Sweet and Thos. Meighan "The Dupe" at the Lyric Monday

Blanche Sweet, the popular idol of the screen, will be seen at the Lyric theatre on Monday in the Jesse L. Lasky production of "The Dupe"—written especially for her by Hector Turnbull and prepared for the screen by Margaret Turnbull.

Blanche Sweet, by her ability alone, has risen to be one of the most distinguished artists of the silent drama. The Lasky Company has given her many different roles to portray; she has been a child of the slums, a Russian an

At The Arcana
"They Wouldn't Take Him Seriously" is a Gold Seal comedy drama featuring Herbert Rawlinson and Agnes Vernon. The young man has a habit of proposing to pretty girls on sight and they never take him seriously. He finally succeeds in winning the one he really wants, but not until she has sounded the depths of his real nature. This has attractive settings and is a clever comedy of the better type.

"The Clever Mrs. Carter," an Imp comedy features Edith Roberts and Harry Benham as newly-weds. The husband flirts and the wife to cure him invites his "friend" to the house for a week. The cure works. "The Head of the Family" is a Rex comedy featuring Ben Wilson and Edna Hunter. The young husband to cure his discontented butterfly wife takes her to the woods. The scheme proves a good one.

At The Temple
At a great expense Manager Smittle has secured one of the greatest of William Fox productions, the five reel drama entitled "A Fool There Was." This sensational play features Theda Bara, "the vampire of the movies." "A Fool There Was" is a production suggested by Rudyard Kipling's famous poem "The Vampire," written by Porter Emmerson Brown. This picture has attracted thousands every day in the larger cities, it being a play with a splendid moral that is plainly brought out in every scene of the production. Be sure and see tonight "A Fool There Was."

At The Strand
"On the High Seas" is the title of chapter 12 of "Peg O The Ring." This opens with Lund, Jr., still battling with the seamen for possession of Peg. He finally saves her and they return to the circus. Peg makes up as a clown and takes Pip's place in the ring while he is suffering from the effects of an accident. Peg is once more spirited away and meets with a fall over a cliff.

"God and the Baby" is a big U drama followed by "Pirates of the Air" an L K two reel comedy and "Peggy and the Law," an Imp love story.

watch the Albanian coast, north of Cape Kephali, fifty miles south-east of Avlona, in which district there is said to be an Austrian submarine base. The territory occupied by the Italians is Quasi-Greek. The opinion of Ruman newspapers, however, is that Greece will not protest the occupation.

Russians Are Partially Repulsed

Berlin, August 26.—(Wireless to Sayville)—Russian troops which are attempting to advance in the Carpathian district on the Hungarian border have been partially repulsed, suffering large losses, the Austrian report of August 25th announces. Austrian positions captured by the Russians on General Von Boehm-Ermullis front in the Terepchnik Picnaki sector, have been recovered.

Aroused Patriotism Of The Portuguese

Batavia, Portugal, Friday, August 25.—(Via Paris, August 26.)—The first meeting was held here today in a campaign for the purpose of stirring the interest and patriotism of the Portuguese people and explaining the reasons for the nations intervention in the war. The meeting aroused great enthusiasm.

Russians Continue Pursuit Of Turks

Petrograd, August 26.—(Via London)—The Russians are pressing the advantage recently gained over the Turks in Southern Turkish-Armenia and report the continued flight of what remains of the Turkish fourth division. After capturing Mushi, the Russians kept on and occupied a bridge beyond the town.

Italian Attack On The Wane

Berlin, August 26.—(Wireless to Sayville)—The Italian attack recently inaugurated in the Dolomites, on the northern part of the front, has failed and the fighting is dying down, the official Austrian announcement today says.

British Retreat Near Suez Canal

Constantinople, August 26.—(Via London)—British and Turkish reconquering parties have clashed at a point less than 20 miles east of the Suez canal, in the coast region, the British detachments being forced to flee, according to today's announcement by the war office. Hard fighting on the Caucasus front, in which, during one engagement, the Russians were forced to retreat, is also reported in the official statement.

Germans Attack in The Champagne

Paris, Aug. 26.—After an intense bombardment last night, the Germans launched an infantry attack west of Tahure, in the Champagne. They penetrated the French positions, the war office announced today, but subsequently were expelled. German attacks on the Somme and Verdun fronts were repulsed.

The German attack on the Somme front was made on Hill 321, near Maurepas, recently captured by the French. On the Verdun front east of the Meuse, the Germans attacked the French line between Fleury and Thiaumont, after a heavy bombardment, but were able to make no advance.

Aerial engagements occurred all along the front. Three German aeroplanes were shot down in the Somme sector, one near Craon and another on the Verdun front. Six others were damaged and two German captive balloons were destroyed.

Protest Action Of Bulgarians

Saloniki, Via London, Aug. 26.—A large popular meeting was held here last night to protest against the occupation of Greek territory by Bulgarians. It was followed by a demonstration for Venizelos and the singing of the national hymn. The crowd then marched to headquarters of the entente commander and sang the "Marseillaise." A formal protest against the Bulgarian occupation was drawn up and left with the prefect of police.

Disputes from Athens say the government is much concerned about the liberal party manifestation which is being organized for Sunday and threatens to hold counter demonstrations in support of the king.

Bulgars Take Greek Port

Paris, August 26.—The Bulgarians have attacked and captured the Greek port of Startila, after killing its commander, Chuganas, and the entire garrison which offered spirited resistance, says a Saloniki dispatch to the Matin. The dispatch is dated August 23, and was delayed.

British Raid German Base

London, Aug. 26.—British aeroplanes have made another dash over Belgium, on this occasion, penetrating to the vicinity of Namur, 26 miles southeast of Brussels, and bombarding German airship sheds.

Padan Property Is Sold To The Heirs

The Hannah Padan property, 836 and 832 Gallia street, was sold by Sheriff Smith on the court house steps at one o'clock Saturday at a sheriff's sale. The property was purchased by Anna L. Padan for the Padan heirs, for $13,333.34, two-thirds of the appraised value, which was $20,000. The property consists of a forty-foot lot occupied by a two story brick and a frame dwelling.

E. V. Bowers Elected

E. V. Bowers was elected superintendent of school district No. 2 Saturday afternoon at a meeting of the presidents of the boards of education of that district. His salary is fixed at $1500.

Bowers received his education at Otterbein college. He has had 14 years teaching experience.

SHERIFF PROUD OF HIS SON

Sheriff E. W. Smith, after being informed that his son, Earl Smith had been sold to the Chicago National league by the Omaha team Saturday morning, brought out a big proud grin that he keeps in store for special occasions. He raised his right hand and a heavy bandage was noticed about his wrist.

"What's the idea of the bandage?" was asked. "Campaigning here, son. Too much hand shaking," replied the sheriff. Later he explained that he and John Nance had a friendly "tussle" Friday evening and the wrist was injured.

THEATRICAL

"Peck's Bad Boy," which is to be offered at The Sun theatre tonight, at 8:15 o'clock, is the old favorite comedy with music which the grown-ups of today like so well when they were children, and which the children of today will like even more. Yet the comedy is not antiquated, but has been brought right up to the minute with the introduction of modern songs and the use of the latest devices in the way of laugh-provoking incidents.

All that is old about "Peck's Bad Boy" of the present season is the ever-popular story of the typical American boy whose pranks upon his father and mother and upon Shultz, the old German grocer, are the talk of the neighborhood in which he lives. The musical setting for the story is supplied by the various members of the acting company, each of whom contributes some kind of an enjoyable specialty. Prices 10, 15, 20, 30 cents. Box seats 50 cents.

Back From Vacation.

Frank Bennett, policeman, returned from his vacation Saturday, spent in camp with his family near Wheelersburg. He will resume work Monday.

Back From Camp.

Jake Pindis and party of friends who have been camping on Bear Creek all week returned home Friday evening in Will Neil's touring car.

One aeroplane is missing.

An official account of these operations is said today says: "Early Friday morning an attack was carried out by naval aeroplanes upon enemy airship sheds near Namur. The sheds were successfully bombarded and two of them were hit, but due to low-lying clouds it was not possible to observe the damage done. One of our machines failed to return.

Serbs Make Big Gains

Paris, Aug. 26.—The Serbians have made appreciable progress on the left wing of the Salonika front and have taken several hundred prisoners according to the official statement issued by the war office last night.

The official communication issued last night, says: "East of Lake Papinios English cavalry patrols, outnumbering the enemy, have crossed the river Angitza and have blown up several bridges.

"The towns of Kavala and Drama, which have been occupied by Greek garrisons, have not been attacked by the Bulgarians.

"In the Struma region there has been somewhat vigorous fighting between the advance corps of the two armies, and some skirmishes have occurred in the direction of Beles mountains. Toward Lake Doiran and on the right bank of the Vardar vigorous artillery struggles are in progress. Our troops are organizing the territory conquered in the neighborhood of Ljupianje.

"On our left wing the Serbians have made appreciable progress in the region of Kuzumov. Violent counter attacks by the Bulgarians against our positions northwest of Lake Ostrova have been repulsed by the Serbians who have taken several hundred prisoners.

Dr. Pirrung Praised.

According to an item in the Cincinnati Enquirer Dr. J. Edward Pirrung, formerly of this city now of Cincinnati, is receiving much praise for a successful operation he performed on Miss Dolly Baecio who was injured in a serious automobile accident July 4. A blood clot on her brain caused paralysis and Dr. Pirrung found it necessary to trephine the skull. The girl was unconscious 32 days and Friday was removed to her home well on the road to recovery.

Mercury Is Climbing.

It is gradually warming up again. The maximum temperature Saturday was 92 against 90 on Friday and 86 on Thursday, according to Weather Observer Dr. Harry Schirrmann. The minimum today was 93 against 53 on Friday morning.

Ran Needle In Foot.

Dorothy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Milliken of Second Court streets, ran a needle in her right foot Saturday morning. It broke off and it was necessary to call a physician to remove the broken piece.

Liberal Donation.

Jacob Findeis Saturday wrote out a check for $25 for 25 tickets to the Geeks' minstrel and then returned the tickets to this order. He is more than willing to help shoe "a poor kiddie."

Mr. C. E. Losh's bible class of the First Presbyterian church held its bi-weekly meeting at his home Friday night. After Rev. George Davis gave an interesting talk on China, the class presented him with $25 to be used in missionary work in China, when he returns to it next month.

Finger Mashed.

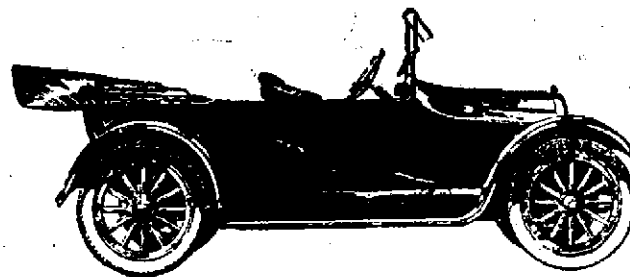

Isaac Shaw, of Scioto street, a cross-tie inspector for John W. Snyder, had a finger badly mashed by getting his hand between a tie and a brick at the old West End mill lot Saturday afternoon.

New Engineer At Drew's

C. W. Morrow who has been superintendent of the electric, light and water works plants at Lynchburg, Ohio, has been secured as the new chief electric and steam engineer at the Irving Drew shoe plant. He will take up his work about the middle of September. He succeeds Ben Brooks, who after five years of service as chief engineer at the shoe plant, has left for Toledo where he is chief engineer over several big plants. Mr. Morrow will move his family to this city.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by Dr. J. C. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by Dr. J. C. Cheney & Co. Trial bottles free. Sold by Druggists. Price 75c per bottle. TRIGGER IS RUSTY: SHOOTING AVERTED

Only the fact that the trigger of his old rusty gun failed to respond probably averted a tragedy when Henry Vance, a young Kentuckian, tried to shoot his wife, Mrs. Lydia Abrams-Vance, at their home in one of the Neill properties on Third street, near Market, Saturday afternoon.

Vance, who is a mere youth from Morgan county, Ky., snapped the gun a couple of times, but it failed to discharge. Relatives notified the police and Chief Clark and Sergeant Smith secured the West End for him. They finally found him at Third and Court streets. He denied being armed, but they found a fully loaded revolver in one of his hip pockets. He is said to be insanely jealous of his wife. Vance has been working for the S. Monroe & Son company on the new food wall job. He was locked up at the city prison.

watch the Albanian coast, north of Cape Kephali, fifty miles south-east of Avlona, in which district there is said to be an Austrian submarine base. The territory occupied by the Italians is Quasi-Greek. The opinion of Rome newspapers, however, is that Greece will not protest the occupation.

Russians Are Partially Repulsed

Berlin, August 26.—(Wireless to Sayville)—Russian troops which are attempting to advance in the Carpathian district on the Hungarian border have been partially repulsed, suffering large losses, the Austrian report of August 25th announces. Austrian positions captured by the Russians on General Von Boehm-Ermolli's front in the Terepuklo-Plenaki sector, have been recovered.

Arouse Patriotism Of The Portuguese

Batalha, Portugal, Friday, August 25.—(Via Paris, August 26.)—The first meeting was held here today in a campaign for the purpose of stirring the interest and patriotism of the Portuguese people and explaining the reasons for the nations intervention in the war. The meeting aroused great enthusiasm.

Russians Continue Pursuit Of Turks

Petrograd, August 26.—(Via London)—The Russians are pressing the advantage recently gained over the Turks in Southern Turkish-Armenia and report the continued flight of what remains of the Turkish fourth division. After capturing Mush, the Russians kept on and occupied a bridge beyond the town.

Italian Attack On The Wane

Berlin, August 26.—(Wireless) to Sayville)—The Italian attack recently inaugurated in the Dolomites, on the northern part of the front, has failed and the fighting is dying down, the official Austrian announcement today says.

British Retreat Near Suez Canal

Constantinople, August 26.—(Via London)—British and Turkish reconnoitering parties have clashed at a point less than 20 miles east of the Suez canal, in the coast region, the British detachments being forced to flee, according to today's announcement by the war office. Hard fighting on the Caucasus front, in which, during one engagement, the Russians were forced to retreat, is also reported in the official statement.

Germans Attack In The Champagne

Paris, Aug. 26.—After an intense bombardment last night, the Germans launched an infantry attack west of Tabora, in the Champagne. They penetrated the French positions, the war office announced today, but subsequently were expelled. German attacks on the Somme and Verdun fronts were repulsed. The German attack on the Somme front was made on Hill 121, near Maurepas, recently captured by the French. On the Verdun front east of the Meuse, the Germans attacked the French line between Fleury and Thiaumont, after a heavy bombardment, but were able to make no advance.

Aerial engagements occurred all along the front. Three German aeroplanes were shot down in the Somme sector, one near Craon and another on the Verdun front. Six others were damaged and two German captive balloons were destroyed.

Protest Action Of Bulgarians

Saloniki, Via London, Aug. 26.—A large popular meeting was held here last night to protest against the occupation of Greek territory by Bulgarians. It was followed by a demonstration for Venizelos and the singing of the national hymn. The crowd then marched to headquarters of the entente commander and sang the "Marseillaise." A formal protest against the Bulgarian occupation was drawn up and left with the prefect of police.

Dispatches from Athens say the government is much concerned about the liberal party manifestation which is being organized for Sunday and threatens to hold counter demonstrations in support of the king.

Bulgars Take Greek Port

Paris, August 26.—The Bulgarians have attacked and captured the Greek port of Startila, after killing its commander, Changanis, and the entire garrison which offered spirited resistance, says a Saloniki dispatch to the Matin. The dispatch is dated August 23 and was delayed.

British Raid German Base

London, Aug. 26.—British aeroplanes have made another dash over Belgium, on this occasion, penetrating to the vicinity of Namur, 36 miles southeast of Brussels, and

Padan Property Is Sold To The Heirs

The Hannah Padan property, 936 and 932 Gallia street, was sold by Sheriff Smith on the court horse steps at one o'clock Saturday at a sheriff's sale. The property was purchased by Anna J. Padan for the Padan heirs, for $13,333.34, two-thirds of the appraised value, which was $20,000. The property consists of a forty-foot lot occupied by a two story brick and a frame dwelling.

E. V. Bowers Elected

E. V. Bowers was elected superintendent of school district No. 2 Saturday afternoon at a meeting of the presidents of the boards of education of that district. His salary is fixed at $1500.

Bowers received his education at Otterbein college. He has had 14 years teaching experience.

SHERIFF PROUD OF HIS SON

Sheriff E. W. Smith, after being informed that his son, Earl Smith had been sold to the Chicago National league by the Omaha team Saturday morning, brought out a big proud grin that he keeps in store for special occasions. He raised his right hand and a heavy bandage was noticed about his wrist. "What's the idea of the bandage?" was asked. "Campaigning here, son. Too much hand shaking," replied the sheriff. Later he explained that he and John Nance had a friendly "tussle" Friday evening and the wrist was injured.

THEATRICAL

"Peck's Bad Boy," which is to be offered at The Sun theatre tonight, at 8:15 o'clock, is the old favorite comedy with music which the grown-ups of today like so well when they were children, and which the children of today will like even more. Yet the comedy is not antiquated, but has been brought right up to the minute with the introduction of modern songs and the use of the latest devices in the way of laugh-provoking incidents.

All that is old about "Peck's Bad Boy" of the present season is the ever-popular story of the typical American boy whose pranks upon his father and mother and upon Shultz, the old German grocer, are the talk of the neighborhood in which he lives. The musical setting for the story is supplied by the various members of the acting company, each of whom contributes some kind of an enjoyable specialty. Prices 10, 15, 20, 30 cents. Box seats 50 cents.

Back From Vacation

Frank Emmett, policeman, returned from his vacation Saturday, spent in camp with his family near Wheelersburg. He will resume work Monday.

Back From Camp

Jake Findeis and party of friends who have been camping on Bear Creek all week returned home Friday evening in Will Heil's touring car.

One aeroplane is missing. An official account of these operations is issued today says:

"Early Friday morning an attack was carried out by naval aeroplanes upon enemy airship sheds near Namur. The sheds were successfully bombed and two of them were hit, but due to low-lying clouds it was not possible to observe the damage done. One of our machines failed to return.

Serbs Make Big Gains

Paris, Aug. 26.—The Serbians have made appreciable progress on the left wing of the Saloniki front and have taken several hundred prisoners according to the official statement issued by the war office last night.

The official communication issued last night says: "East of Lake Tapinos English cavalry patrols, outnumbering the enemy, have crossed the river Angitsa and have blown up several bridges.

"The towns of Kavala and Drama, which have been occupied by Greek garrisons, have not been attacked by the Bulgarians.

"In the Struma region there has been somewhat vigorous fighting between the advance corps of the two armies, and some skirmishes have occurred in the direction of Beles mountains. Toward Lake Doiran and on the right bank of the Vardar vigorous artillery struggles are in progress. Our troops are organizing the territory conquered in the neighborhood of Ljupkica.

"On our left wing the Serbians have made appreciable progress in the region of Kikinez. Violent counter attacks by the Bulgarians against our positions northwest of Lake Ostrova have been repulsed by the Serbians who have taken several hundred prisoners."

According to an item in the Cincinnati Enquirer Dr. J. Edward Pirrung, formerly of this city now of Cincinnati, is receiving much praise for a successful operation he performed on Miss Dolly Bacchione who was injured in a serious automobile accident July 4. A blood clot on her brain caused paralysis and Dr. Pirrung found it necessary to trephine the skull. The girl was unconscious 32 days and Friday was removed to her home well on the road to recovery.

Dr. Louis Great, uncle of the girl attributes her recovery to what he considers "one of the most daring surgical operations in medical annals."

TRIGGER IS RUSTY: SHOOTING AVERTED

Only the fact that the trigger of his old rusty gun failed to respond probably averted a tragedy when Henry Vance, a young Kentuckian, tried to shoot his wife, Mrs. Lydia Abrams-Vance, at their home in one of the Neill properties on Third street, near Market, Saturday afternoon.

Vance, who is a mere youth from Morgan county, Ky., snatched the gun a couple of times, but it failed to discharge. Relatives notified the police and Chief Clark and Sergeant Smith scoured the West End for him. They finally found him at Third and Court streets. He denied being armed, but they found a fully loaded revolver in one of his hip pockets. He is said to be insanely jealous of his wife. Vance has been working for the S. Monroe & Son company on the new flood wall job. He was locked up at the city prison.

Pain for Years

"I suffered for years with a pain in my left side and dragging feelings," says Mrs. Sarah Boggs, of Winnipeg, Mo., "and was almost unable to stand on my feet. I couldn't sleep nights, and had smothering spells. Had a pain in my head and back, and I took medicines till I got out of heart. I commenced using Cardui, and I am so much better. Can do my housework and washing now, and walk two miles easily."

CARD-UI

The Woman's Tonic

Card-UI is a medicine for women, made from pure, vegetable ingredients. It has been found of great value as a tonic for women of all ages, and is particularly effective in relieving the aches and pains from which so many women suffer. If you are weak, run-down or nervous, don't get discouraged. Take Cardui, the woman's tonic. With a record of over 50 years of success, isn't it reasonable to suppose Cardui will help you, too? Give it a trial.

OFFICERS CHOSEN BY THE ELKS

The London Times says "The battle on the Somme has grown into dimensions hard to be realized. The price which we have had to pay for our successes exceeds anything we have thought possible. It must be said that the battle has reached a very critical stage."

London had figured on a probable British loss of 150,000 men in the entire drive from Somme to Sambre. The last British casualty list shows a loss of 2,366 officers for the last week in July. As they count 40 men to 1 officer that would make for that week alone 113,840 dead, wounded and missing. It is not likely that the losses were as high as that in every week of July because there was a big battle on

Organizing A Show

Captain Curley Roberts, of San Antonio, Texas, is organizing a vaudeville show at A. O. Cook's shoe repair shop, 501 Market street where he is giving nightly exhibitions with Howard Harris, of Portsmouth, as the stellar attraction. The show will appear at Lyra next Tuesday night and then begin a tour of the smaller towns and villages of this section. Harris is a Grant street brick-

POLISH IS POOR MEDICINE

Col. William Holmes, a second hand furniture dealer, mistook some furniture polish for medicine Friday night, swallowing quite a dose. He, as a result, was violently sick for several hours later.

HAS PLAN FOR TERRACE

Albert Freytag, assistant service director, says if he is furnished the necessary plants, he will convert the flood wall terrace into one long flower bed next spring.

Recalls His First Show

John F. Flannigan by the coming of Peck's Bad Boy at the Sun theatre is reminded of the first show of that production he ever saw. "It was before I was married, over thirty years ago, at the old Opera House, corner of Sixth and Court streets. My wife (she was my sweetheart then) had more fun laughing at me than at the show. One scene in the play had the boy taking some medicine. It was dandelion. The boy 're-niggered' on it, throwing the dandelion into a stove, exclaiming, 'I don't want this dandelion.' It sounded to me like he used the word dynamite and I jumped 3 feet in my seat," said John. He said he and his wife to this day have a laugh among themselves in recalling the scenes of the original production.

Spangler Here With Bride

Joe Spangler, a popular former West End young man, and bride, Mrs. Dorothy, of Providence, R. I., are guests at the Hotel Portsmouth. Mr. Spangler left 109 Company, U. S. coast artillery after two years and two months service in order to get married, recently having been stationed at Fort Greble, R. I. He and bride expect to go from here to Cincinnati to visit his sister after which they will return to Providence where he is now employed as a bartender at the Imperial hotel.

Was At Eagle Meeting

Will Staiger, past president of the local Aerie of Eagles, has returned from Savannah, Ga., where he represented the local Aerie as a delegate to the national convention of Eagles.

Mr. Staiger says it was the largest meeting of the kind he had ever attended, delegates being present from practically every state. He also stated that records submitted show the Eagles to be in splendid shape financially as well as in point of members. Mr. Staiger returned home by Washington, Old Point Comfort and Norfolk and had a most delightful trip.

Boy Scouts Enjoying Outing At Carter Caves

Camp Carter Caves, Ky.
August 23, 1916.

(By H. Bayre)

The Boy Scouts are still having a fine time at Carter Caves, and a little excitement was injected into camp life Tuesday night when we were visited by a lightning and thunder storm.

Some of the younger scouts were pretty badly scared, but the "old heads" enjoyed it very much. When reveille was sounded, Wednesday, the rain was pouring down in torrents, but we were snugly sleeping in our dry tents. The only inconvenience experienced was a late breakfast, as Chef Bellamy failed to have a shelter over his camp stove.

Today we visited the celebrated "X" cave, led by our guide, Mr. Vickers. Scouts Doll, Dunn and Davis (the 3 D's) journeyed to Carter to purchase some "sweets" for the gang Wednesday morning. They hiked most of the way through the rain, but a little thing like rain cannot stop such a good bunch of scouts as Wolf, Ky.

comprise the "three D's".

NOTES

Scouts William Hopkins, Richard Hopkins, Guy Edwards and John Schlechter, "the happy quartet", visited the city of Wolf Wednesday.

Scout Blair is busy enlisting members for an organization known as the "Cave Men."

Scouts Bryant and Hanson have charge of the scout library at Camp and they are furnishing some interesting reading matter for the rest of us.

Scout Corwin Knowles reached camp Tuesday, 24 hours late. Glenn Moore pitches the opening game Saturday against the Carter City Stars. We are pulling for Glenn to blank the Kentuckians.

Chef Bellamy entertained a large audience Wednesday evening with a number of the "latest" dances.

Thursday we visit the "Bat Cave", the biggest and best cave down here, and on Friday a number of our Scouts will hike to Wolf, Ky.

ABUNDANT FLUFFY HAIR IS IMPOSSIBLE IF YOU HAVE DANDRUFF

How often we hear a beautiful woman referred to as having a regal head! Denude that head of its hair and instead of a queenly, royal bearing we have a fright. The hair makes all the difference. To have that glorious abundance of radiant hair which always crowns a "regal head," one should use Newbro's Herpetide.

Herpetide represents the last word in scientific hair culture. It destroys the dandruff, checks falling hair and corrects generally, diseases of the hair and scalp. The positive results and the delicate but refreshing odor recommends Newbro's Herpetide to ladies of refinement everywhere. Newbro's Herpetide in the 5c and $1.00 sizes is gold and guaranteed to do all that is claimed. If you are not satisfied your money will be refunded. Application made by the best barbers and hair dressers.

Instructions To Teachers, Parents And Pupils Given By McCowen

Instructions to the teachers, parents and pupils of the one-room and two-room elementary schools of Scioto county for the school year beginning September, 1916, follows.

First Grade:—Aldine Primer for Beginners; Aldine First Reader later in the year. The system of Reading requires the use of the Aldine Material at the beginning of school. The Primer is not used until a few weeks after school has begun. When the Aldine First Reader is begun when the Primer is completed. Both must be completed in the first year. In addition to that at least one of the following supplementary books should be completed: "Short Stories for Little Folks"; "Little Playmates"; "Busy Brownies at Work." The last three books are Supplementary and should be furnished by the Board of Education, one for each pupil, or by money raised by an entertainment of some kind. All three of these Supplementary books, in addition to the Primer and First Reader, have been completed by some wide-awake teachers.

Each teacher should have a copy of the Aldine Manual, "Learning to Read." The Aldine Material is as follows:

For the teacher:
1 set Phonetic Cards, contract price 21 cents.

1 set Sight Word Cards, contract price 54 cents.

1 set Rhyme Charts, 45 cents.

Only one of each of the above is needed for any number of pupils in a school.

For the pupils: (For a class of 6 pupils).

6 Rhyme Cards, at 51 cents per 100, 3c.

6 Seal Word Cards, No. 1, at $1.50 per 100, 9c.

6 Seal Word Cards, No. 2, at $1.50 per 100, 9c.

6 Seal Word Cards, No. 3, at $1.50 per 100, 9c.

This makes the total cost for a class of 6, $1.50. The additional cost for each pupil more than 6 for one each of the last four cards mentioned above, is 5c.

Most of the Boards of Education of Scioto County purchased a complete set as above last year for each of its Elementary schools. This material should be found in the teacher's desk at the school house. In case where boards did not buy the material, the teacher should find a way to get it, as it would be very difficult to teach the system right without it. All of the above may be secured from Newson & Co., 73 Fifth Ave., New York City.

Second Grade:—Aldine Second Reader; Supplementary, "That's Why Stories." Both of Newson & Co., New York. Economy System of Writing, Book I, Laurel Book Co., Chicago, Ill. 24 sheets of practice paper should be ordered with Writing Books in all grades and used as directed by the system. Teachers may secure Manual free by writing to the company.

Third and Fourth Grades:—(Will recite together as indicated below). By a system of alternation the county and district superintendents have reduced the number of daily recitations to 25, after the full system of alternation is in force, thus giving more time to each recitation and providing for more efficient work. In accordance with this plan the Third and Fourth Reader pupils will read together in the Aldine Fourth Reader this year and there will therefore be no Third Reader Class this year. Aldine Fourth Reader, Aldine First Language Book. Both published by Newson & Co., Hamilton's Elementary Arithmetic, American Book Co., Economy System of Writing, Book II for Third Grade and Book III for Fourth Grade.

Fourth and Fifth Grades:—Frye's First Steps in Geography, Ginn & Co., Columbus, Ohio. (Fourth Grade will do Fifth Grade work this year with the Fifth in Geography.)

Fifth and Sixth Grades:—(Recite together as below.)—Elson Grammar School Reader, Book II, Scott, Foresman & Co., Chicago, Ill. Hamilton's Complete Arithmetic, American Book Co. The Fifth and Sixth Grades will both begin Hamilton's Complete Arithmetic at the beginning of school. Montgomery's Primary History, Ginn & Co., Columbus, Ohio. Bourne & Benton's Introductory American History, D. C. Heath & Co., Chicago, Ill. Fifth and Sixth Grade pupils will begin Montgomery's Primary History at the beginning of school and begin Bourne & Benton's Introductory American History when the Primary is finished, completing both in the year. Overton's Personal Hygiene, American Book Co. Economy System of Writing, Book IV for the Fifth Grade and Book V for the Sixth Grade, Laurel Book Co. There will be no Language Book used in these two grades this year.

Sixth and Seventh Grades:—Frye's Leading Facts of Geography, Ohio Edition, Ginn & Co., Columbus, Ohio. Sixth Grade will do Seventh Grade Geography work this year.

Seventh and Eighth Grades:—(Recite together as below.)—Elson's Grammar School Reader, Book IV, Scott, Foresman & Co., Chicago, Ill. Essentials of English, Book II, Pearson & Kirshway, American Book Co. Hamilton's Complete Arithmetic, Economy Writing System, Book VI for Seventh Grade and Book VII for Eighth Grade. Eighth Grade will finish history this year in text used last year.

The county and district superintendents also recommend for Supplementary Reading, "Fables from Aesop" for Third Grade, "Folk Lore from Foreign Lands" for Fourth Grade, both published by Newson & Co., New York City. They also recommend "The Story Hour Readers" as Supplementary for the Second Grades. American Book Co., Cincinnati, Ohio.

This system of alternation will be used only in one-room and two-room rural schools.

Dealers who are ordering for one-room and two-room rural schools for this year will order only books as listed above. For all villages having 3 or more rooms the above books will be ordered, and in addition thereto, the following: Aldine Third Reader, Newson & Co.; Elson Grammar School Reader, Book I for Fifth Grade and Book III for Seventh Grade. Pearson & Kirshway's Essentials in English, Book I for Seventh Grade and Overton's General Hygiene for Seventh Grade, American Book Co., Cincinnati, Ohio.

If all teachers and all persons interested in the above will clip and preserve it much time and energy will be saved and there will be no confusion during the coming school year.

E. O. McCOWEN,
County Superintendent.

EVERY MEMBER CANVASS SEPT. 10

Trinity church has found it necessary to postpone its Every Member Canvass from August 27th to September 10th, because so many of the members and workers are away at this time. Remember the new date, September 10th, and plan to be at home on that day to receive the canvassers. The envelopes for the new year will be delivered before the first Sunday of September.

Cincinnati Firm Is High On Bond Issue

Ditty Boosted For High W. O. W. Office

George A. Ditty, former district manager of the Woodmen of the World, was unanimously endorsed for the nomination of head consul of the State of Ohio at the next convention of the order, Friday evening at the regular meeting of the River City Camp No. 29. Mr. Ditty, who now holds a responsible state position, has been active in the affairs of the lodge for the past several years and has held many positions of trust. His candidacy, it is understood, is favorable to many camps in the state.

Arrangements are under way for the state-wide initiation which is to be held at Cincinnati Sunday, October 15. A special train will take the Portsmouth Woodmen to the meeting.

All C. E. Members Invited To Meeting

During the Christian Endeavor Efficiency Institute at the Second Presbyterian church from September 5th to September 8th, all the Endeavorers of other churches will be invited to attend. Especially Junior Christian Endeavor workers are invited to the conferences of Junior C. E. methods of working. These will be led by Miss Jeannette, one of the Branch Junior superintendents of the Hamilton county C. E. Union. Although she is quite young, she has had a good training and experience in the work.

WAS WELCOME VISITOR

J. W. Davis, Civil War veteran, who is living on a farm near Ottaway, was in the city Thursday and renewed his subscription to The Times. Mr. Davis has been a subscriber to The Times for many years. He served four years in the war. Mr. Davis passed his eightieth milestone July 17, but is still able to get around with the aid of a cane. He is a member of the local G. A. R., and called on several old friends while here.

The Head of Every Family

Is paying for a home. If he is living in a rented house, he is paying for his landlord's house, and when he has it paid for, it still belongs to the landlord, and he starts right in paying for it a second time.

When he adopts the ROYAL DEFINITE CONTRACT LOAN plan and has a home paid for, he owns the house and can quit paying or go on saving his money for some other plan to benefit himself and family.

INTEREST RATE IS REASONABLE

Some people say "I would buy a home but I have not enough to pay cash and the interest is so much." They let the interest scare them. The interest rate is six and seventy-six one-hundredths per cent. The renter pays this to his landlord and a profit besides.

SAVE THIS PROFIT FOR YOURSELF

Why, some people are buying houses through the Royal and letting the renter pay for them. They bring the rent to pay the payments on the loan.

Are you going to keep on buying the landlord's house or are you going to pay for a home of your own.

Come and see us. We will help you get your own home.

Homes of Character, No. 117-A

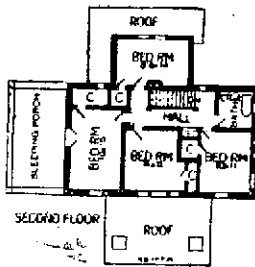

An American Home—By John Henry Newson

This exterior is a development of our No. 117 and the floor plan has been retained with a sun room added and a revision in the kitchen wing. The location of the dining room and living room and the general arrangement of the second floor has been kept, but a sleeping porch has been placed on the end and a bedroom has been placed over the kitchen.

No. 117-A—Size 44x31 feet over all. Regular price of plans $35. Price of specifications $5. Special to Times readers until Feb. 1, 1917, 50% DISCOUNT on prices of plans and specifications of HOMES OF CHARACTER.

By special arrangement Mr. Newson will answer FREE OF CHARGE, all inquiries of Times readers concerning HOMES OF CHARACTER. Be sure to give the number of the house concerning which you inquire. Address all letters to John Henry Newson, Homes of Character Dept., The Times.

The floors throughout are of oak. The finish in the dining room, living room and upper hall are of hardwood and the balance of the finish may be either pine or white-wood, and may be either stained or enameled.

This house should be duplicated as built for about $5000. By substituting frame construction in place of hollow tile this cost could be reduced about $1000.

EVERYTHING ELECTRICAL

IT'S WARM ENOUGH THESE DAYS WITHOUT ADDING ANY MORE HEAT!

The idea right now is to reduce the heat in the home, the work shop and the factories. When the thermometer is hovering in the nineties, enjoy the cooling current from an electric fan—costs no more to operate it than burning an incandescent light. Don't swelter keep cool—an electric fan will solve the problem.

ELECTRIC LIGHTS GIVE BRILLIANT LIGHT AND NO HEAT!

The light is mellow, restful and as near like daylight as the sun's rays. Be comfortable, be happy, be contented, be sensible—do things electrical in these progressive days. Whether you own your home or rent it, you ought to see it has electric service. We will be glad to talk to you any time about how little it costs and what are its manifold advantages.

PROSPECTS ARE GOOD FOR GREAT FRATERNAL PARADE

Paul Esselborn, chairman of the Fraternal parade committee for the Greater 1916 Korn Carnival, was selected Friday evening at a special meeting of the delegates from the various fraternal organizations to lead the big pageant.

"Decidedly Different," is the working slogan of the delegates, and it is being applied to every division of the parade. More organizations are expected to take part in the line of march. A larger percentage of members from each order have demonstrated their willingness to assist in making the fraternal parade the biggest event of the Carnival.

Prizes to be awarded are: For the order having the largest number of members in line; to the order having the largest percentage of members in line; to the lodge having the best appearing group in uniform; for the best float; to the lodge making the best appearance without uniforms; and to the organization making the most unique appearance.

Delegates present reported the following estimates: Catholic Order of Foresters, 30; Daughters of America, 204; Supreme Order of Geeks, 60; Jr. Order United American Mechanics, 241; New Boston Jr. O. U. A. M., 125; Knights of the Marechaux, 160; Knights of Columbus, 190; Loyal Order of Moose, 390; Modern Woodmen of America, 940; Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Portsmouth 146, 130; Seaside No. 27, 250; Canton Orient 27, and Orient Disarmament 145; Sons of Veterans 40; Spanish War Veterans 40; Woodmen of the World, 500.

There will be degree teams in full uniform, floats, lodge regalia and several surprises which are being planned by the committee. The line of march and the formation of the parade was agreed upon at the last meeting of the committee.

A meeting will be held each Friday evening until the event is staged.

NOTICE

James M. Carter, whose place of residence is unknown, will take notice that on the 15th day of August, 1916, Elizabeth A. Carter, his wife, filed her petition in the Court of Common Pleas of Scioto County, Ohio, being case No. 1916-104, for a divorce and that her real estate is being sold to her creditors at the Court of Common Pleas of Scioto County, Ohio, on the 15th day of August, 1916, and that she is a resident of the County of Scioto, Ohio, and that she is a widow.

Six Churches Already Have Secured Space For Kommunity Dinner

The various Ladies' Aid Societies have enthusiastically taken up the spirit of the Korn Carnival Kommunity Dinner, which event will formally open the Greater 1916 Korn Carnival, Wednesday, September 27, and are now making preparations to serve the luncheon.

Representatives from six local churches met the committee on Friday afternoon at the offices of the Board of Trade, Masonic Temple. Spaces for the dinner were allotted to the six churches present. Two more good spaces are still available for those who desire to assist in celebrating the Carnival. The churches represented were: Trinity Methodist church, Bigelow Methodist church, First Presbyterian church, Second Presbyterian church, First Christian church and German Evangelical church.

Decision Lessens Trips

Huntington, W. Va., Aug. 26—The recent decision of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad modifying the ban on labeled intoxicants has resulted in doubling the size of suit cases carried by passengers. (Hitherto the ordinary capacity was 36 pint bottles. Now passengers carry suit cases that hold 72 pints.)

Monday another meeting of the delegates and committee will be held. At this meeting reports are to be filed with the committee as to the probable number of seats desired by each church.

The Kommunity dinner will be held in Tracy Park, Ninth and Chillicothe streets. Tables are to be placed around the edges of the park, which is shaped in the form of a huge maltese cross, and a luncheon served. There will be room sufficient to accommodate those who wish to attend.

The committee comprises John E. Fritz, William Z. Treitschler and St. Straus.

Seneca Tribe Has Meeting

Seneca Tribe of Red Men had a good attendance at its regular meeting Friday night but definite action regarding its participation in the Korn Carnival fraternal parade was postponed until the return of Thomas Whitt. He is expected back from a pleasure trip to Norfolk, Va., by the middle of next week.

Mayor Vetoes The Street Fair License Ordinance

Believing that the license fee of $100 per day for street fairs to be a prohibitory sum Mayor H. H. Kaps, Saturday morning vetoed the ordinance passed at a recent meeting of city council by a vote of 5 to 1.

The mayor's letter to city council on the subject is as follows:

August 26, 1916.
To the Honorable City Council,
City of Portsmouth, Ohio.
Gentlemen:

I, hereby on this 26th day of August, 1916, exercise my right of veto, which right is given me by the statutes of the State of Ohio, on a certain ordinance passed Aug. 16, 1916, "Ordinance to amend Section 123 of the Code of Ordinances of the City of Portsmouth, State of Ohio, passed July 1st, 1903, and providing for the licensing of circuses, menageries, theatrical performances, motion picture shows, street fairs and street carnivals, concerts, exhibitions and performances." By this communication I desire to exercise said right and state herein to your Honorable Body my reason for so doing.

I realize that this ordinance was passed by the city council by a vote of five of the members of council in favor of said ordinance, but I cannot conscientiously, and in face of my official duty, and my duty to the citizens and property owners of the city of Portsmouth, approve said ordinance.

My reasons for vetoing the ordinance are simply for the fact that said ordinance imposes a tax on street fairs in such an amount as to prohibit these exhibitions from being shown in the city of Portsmouth, and does not tend to regulate them, which I believe should be the real spirit of the ordinance and the intention of your Honorable Body in passing same. I am earnestly favorable to the taxation of street fairs and believe that this tax should be high enough to insure the city good clean exhibitions and to cover any expense that the city might be put to through its

Police Department, by reason of the holding of these exhibitions in the city.

I sincerely believe that one hundred ($100.00) dollars is excessive as a tax on such exhibitions because it is so high that it would tend to keep out all exhibitions of this sort. My idea of a tax of this kind would be the sum of fifty ($50.00) dollars, which I believe would be sufficient and insure the city clean amusement.

Respectfully submitted,
H. H. KAPS, Mayor.

Grand Councilor Jr. O. U. A. M. Coming To Probe West Rumpus

No resolution favoring a Free Text Book Law for the state was passed at the state convention of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics, which was held at Cleveland the first part of this week, according to William West, a delegate from Portsmouth Council No. 38. Mr. West stated Friday afternoon on arriving home from the Cleveland meeting that the report circulated in a dispatch, that a resolution to this effect had been passed, was absolutely without foundation.

Before leaving to attend the convention, orders were received by the local council to expel Mr. West for his activity in initiating a petition last spring favoring a Free Text book law. Mr. West entered the court of common pleas and secured a temporary injunction restraining the local order from carrying out the order. A few days afterward, in a statement, the local council endorsed the action taken by West and denounced the expulsion order.

When the state convention opened in Cleveland last Tuesday morning, Mr. West, acting as a delegate from the local council, presented his credentials and was refused admission. He was barred from the convention hall all Tuesday, he says. But Irwin Bowser, local delegate, "had his say," Mr. West says, but refuses to divulge the nature of the address delivered Tuesday.

On being refused admission, Mr. West says he entered the Cuyahoga county common pleas court and secured a temporary restraining order prohibiting the officers from barring him from the meeting. The notice was served on the state officials late Tuesday afternoon, but they refused to recognize it, Mr. West says, because a point in technical law arose.

"I stayed by my injunction, believing that the sheriff of Cuyahoga county should know his business, but I failed to get into the hall Tuesday," declared Mr. West. All of the committee reports were received on Tuesday. Then the report was spread about that a resolution would be passed Wednesday favoring the Free Text Book Law. This is what I wanted, of course. Even one of the Cleveland papers came out and said they would pass the resolution.

"I attended the meeting Wednesday, but did not attempt to get the floor, for I believed they would pass the Free Text Book resolution. It was not passed and the dispatch sent out that a resolution was passed is false."

C. D. Webb, grand councilor, Straightville, N. C. delivered a lengthy address upon "Harmony." Mr. Webb assured Mr. West that the expulsion order issued against him by the state officials would receive the closest attention of the state judiciary and that he would personally visit the local council, perhaps, September 6. Mr. West says the local delegates have confidence that the national officers will sustain their stand in the expulsion order.

In concluding, Mr. West stated that the matter of his expulsion

DEATH RECALLS THRILLING ACCIDENT

The death of Ora De Lotell Wednesday night at his home in the North End recalled a thrilling accident he met with years ago when employed in the old Gaylord mills.

In attempting to get away from a fellow employee on whom he had played a yoke De Lotell ran right into a huge fly wheel in the Gaylord plant and he was whirled around so rapidly that a pair of hobnailed shoes he had on were literally whirled off his feet. Before the power could be thrown off and the fly wheel stopped De Lotell's body was hurled 40 feet through the air. Workmen rushing to his assistance expected to find him dead, but De Lotell jumped to his feet after he recovered his breath and he was back to work ten minutes after the accident occurred.

COMPANY K GOES TO CAMP PERRY

Under the leadership of Captain William J. Keyes, the members of the local militia, Company K, Seventh Regiment, O. N. G., eighty strong, entrained at the Norfolk and Western depot Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock for Camp Perry, where the annual encampment will be held this year. The local company and Company L, Ironton, made the trip on a special train.

Such activity in a military way is seldom seen in a city. Troops in their neat khaki, bustled about the streets Friday evening bidding good bye to their friends. At the armory, Seventh and Chillicothe streets, Claude Ross and Ben Bell, the two colored cooks, were preparing cold luncheons to serve on the train. The non-commissioned officers were checking out the ammunition, examining the rifles, making up bed rolls and checking in the members of the company reporting.

Shortly after nine o'clock, a warrant was issued for Jonah Rice, Front street, for failure to appear at the specified time. A detail of men in charge of Sergeant Barber, was dispatched to his home. The offender was not found until a late hour.

In the commissioned officers' room, were Captain W. J. Keyes and Lieutenant Joseph Horchow.

Captain Keyes and his assistant were perusing a list of names and—Woff! There on the right wrist of Lieutenant Joseph Horchow was a real live, honest-to-goodness linker; a wrist watch, if you please; one that ticks—part of the regulations for army officers, it was reported. Claude Ross, cook, attempted to trade Lieutenant Horchow out of his prize, but negotiations failed.

At a late hour, the regulation bed rolls were brought out, spread upon the floor of the armory and the company bivouaced for the night. At daylight, the company was aroused by the notes of the bugle and the march to the depot was started.

CAR GOES OVER BANK

Four men narrowly escaped injury when a Ford touring car belonging to Cyrus Van Bibber, a Warnock, Ky., farmer, turned over descending Morton Hill, near Fullerton, Friday evening at 7:45 o'clock.

Van Bibber and brother Morris Van Bibber, and Tom Dingess, of Warnock, Ky., and Miles Williams, a stock raiser of Mount Joy, O., whom they brought the 25 mile trip down Tygart from Warnock enroute to Portsmouth, were all more or less bruised and scratched, they landing against a barbed wire fence.

The accident happened just as the machine was nearing the foot of the hill. The brakes suddenly failed, sending the car over a seven foot embankment in front of Allen Warnock's home at Happy Corner. The front axle was bent, the windshield broken and the left side of the top slightly damaged.

aged.

It was hoped to have repairs completed in time to permit the Ford car's return trip to Warnock some time Saturday. Mr. Williams who had been at Warnock buying cattle, came to this side shortly after the accident and spent the night at the Brunswick Hotel, leaving for Mount Joy on an early morning N. & W. train Saturday.

Wanted More Beer, And Joel Smashed Things, Police News

Joel Adams was arrested for "tearing up the patch" at his sister's home, No. 735 Twelfth street, (rear) Friday afternoon.

Adams was drunk and when his sister objected to him going after some more beer, proceeded to smash the windows and destroy property generally. When Chief Clark later visited the scene he found her unwilling to appear against her brother. Besides she tried to make it appear that the breaking of half a dozen panes of window glass was accidental, saying Adams had been swinging a bucket for the amusement of his baby and that it flew out of his hand. The Mayor fined him $10.

Detectives Reno and Leslie are also investigating the cause for Adams having been ejected from N. & W. passenger train No. 4, Thursday night.

John Wilkerson, a negro, was fined $10, half suspended, for drunkenness and loitering about the N. & W. depot. A man giving the name of James Carter, whom Night Turnkey Fred Goltz arrested, was fined $5 for drunkenness.

THE TRUTH TO TELL

The good roads day, let it be frankly said, can not be characterized as a distinct success. It is true that considerable improvement was made on the road and that portion of it from Lucasville to beyond Clifford was put in excellent condition, far better than the whole of it has ever been heretofore. But the work was done by the diligent efforts of a few, assisted by the county with the cutting out of the drains. With a hundred men and twenty more teams the trail could have been made in the one day the best through highway there is in all Scioto county. But no great general interest could be aroused and only a few farmers along the trail did a full part. It isn't pleasant to have to say this, but it is the plain truth. It is a truth rather hard to understand, especially considering the position past and present of some of those refusing any sort of aid. Maybe a feeling manifested in a remark, passing down the thinned line of workers may offer some explanation of a lack of general enthusiasm. This was: "We farmers pay the taxes, the town people wear the roads out with their automobiles and now we are expected to fix them up at our expense and labor." But it isn't the right feeling. It isn't founded upon fact, justice and self interest. The farmers pay road taxes, but they pay but little more than one-third of the total. Portsmouth and the other incorporated towns of the county pay well over two-thirds. Proportionately they pay more for it is a notorious fact that town realty is valued much higher in ratio to its actual value than are farm lands. Another thing is all the road taxes go to highways along farms, not a dollar to city or village. Nor is it fair to say automobiles wear out the roads. They do, of course, in part, but not even in the greater part. More country vehicles pass over any given road than do town cars and do more harm to them in the aggregate.

The most important project Scioto county can undertake is that of securing good roads. The plans and work towards the end should be approached in a broad and tolerant spirit, on the part of the whole county, not by assumption that one section is contriving to attain its desire by placing burden upon another. The attainment, with the rather limited resources of the county, is necessarily going to be slow, but a common purpose and a common understanding and good will can bring it about in a reasonable time.

THE MISFIT CHILD

The misfit child is always mentally peculiar, though he is far from being mentally deficient. Our schools are full of such children, and they are universally misunderstood. These children are usually born "short" along some lines, but are often "long" on an equal number of lines. Some of these little folk have very little capacity for mathematics, some as little for spelling or for music, while others show an aptitude for manual training, drawing, or mechanical work of any kind. Some possess singularly little ability for language, some have no artistic sense, others seem to have only artistic sense and little practical sense.

Our public schools make scant provision for these various kinds of "misfit" children. The schools are adapted to the "average child," and woe betide the child who does not fit the system. But our educational system should be for "all the children of all the people," not for some of the children of some of the people. We admit without question that a color-blind child may succeed in life even though he never learns all the colors; without argument we allow a child to pass through the schools who can never play or sing a note correctly. Even a child totally devoid of aesthetic sense may be looked upon as the best pupil in school; but if a child fails to do all the number work which no one knows who decided he must do, then such a child is retarded, discouraged and finally dumped off the educational scrap heap, if he manages to survive the compulsory school-age limit. Who was it that decided that to succeed in school or in life everybody must know all the prescribed mathematics? Who was it and by what authority did he decide that technical grammar must be mastered by every one? Why is it more necessary to parse than to sing? Why is it more desirable to do manual work than to recognize colors?—Ernest B. Hoag in the September Mother's Magazine.

KUM TO THE KORN KARNIVAL

THE ZAPH SEWER MATTER

The facts in the famous Zaph sanitary sewer, which was built on private property and for which the city council passed an ordinance to pay, have been looked up by The Times and they are as follows. This sewer begins at the center of Kinney's Lane and alley west of Chillicothe street, north to first alley, north of Kinney's Lane and east through said alley to what would be Sunset avenue, were it dedicated to the city. The sewer is practically all on the Zaph property, which is entirely private property, none of the streets and alleys having been dedicated to city use.

Specifications for the sewer were drawn by Samuel G. Harper, city engineer, but whether in his private capacity as advisor to Zaph or as city engineer, is not stated.

Work on the sewer was begun by the Schmidt-Watkins Company, under contract July 10th and was finished by them on July 22nd.

At the session of council on Wednesday evening, August 2nd, an ordinance appropriating $372.70 to pay for this Zaph sewer was introduced, along with a number of other ordinances, by the street committee of council, and was passed by council. The street committee says the ordinance was handed to it by the solicitor along with others and was assumed to be all right. The solicitor says that the request for the drafting of the ordinance came to him with estimates along with others and he assumed, of course, that it was all proper and had been approved by the city service director. The latter says he did not approve the ordinance and first knew of it when it came up in council. This seems to leave the matter up to the city engineer who furnished the estimates.

Following the passage of the ordinance by council, it was assumed to be all right until Councilman Charles Wilson got information to the effect that the sewer was on private land and he exposed the matter in the last session of council, condemning the manner in which the legislation had been rushed through council, and protesting against spending city money to improve private property.

In the meantime City Auditor Zucker has declined to pay for the sewer, acting upon information that the payment of same would be illegal, and there the matter rests.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY

O. O. MCINTYRE.

New York, Aug. 26.—Broadway's gay lights have lured another chicken. Pretty Theda left her happy home for the uncertain life of the swinging doors—and it was the same old story.

Somewhere in the heart of the metropolis, now under an automobile, now darting from the path of a surface car, sweeping under swinging doors with an amazed cluck is a white hen whose name is Theda. She is one of the best trained and silliest hens in the East.

For two years Theda has been the property of William Loeb, a motion picture actor, and has lived and thrived in the back yard of a big boarding house near the Gay White Way.

The other day one of the neighbors saw her walking down Sixth avenue alone and spoke to her. Theda snubbed the well-meaning neighbor and walked out of the life of the block. It is, of course, an old story—the lure of Broadway and the chicken who moved away.

It is rumored in literary circles that Ella Wheeler Wilcox is to quit writing poetry for several years. No reason is given, but it is hinted that she is working on a novel at her country home near New York and wants to concentrate all her energies on it.

Billy Wants To Do Something

HARRY MAD BILLY ROMAN got nicely settled in the new nest in the pine tree before he began to look around for something interesting to do.

"Something to do?" exclaimed Mrs. Billy when he spoke to her. "Dear me! With all this nest-building and moving and everything, I should think you had had enough to do without hunting around for something more!"

"Oh, that!" replied Billy. "Well, that's all done! I want something to do now."

"Then, guess you'll have to hunt it yourself, Billy," said Mrs. Billy decidedly, "because I want to smooth down this nest lining a bit and I'm not going out to-day."

"Very well," replied Billy good-naturedly. "I'll be back sometime, and off he flew."

The first thing he did was to hunt up Mr. Garden Toad.

"Good morning, Mr. Garden Toad," said Billy pleasantly. "Nice morning."

"Nice morning indeed," replied Mr. Garden Toad. "Perhaps it is, but I'm too busy to notice mornings."

"Too busy?" asked Billy in surprise, for to look at Mr. Garden Toad, sitting there in the sunbath, one would never have guessed him to be busy. "What are you busy about?"

"I'm busy resting—I should think you could see that," said the toad as lazy as usual and that he called his laziness resting.

"You're a lazy old fellow," laughed Billy, "as lazy as can be! I'm going to eat two fine fat worms and then I'm going in search of an adventure."

"And I," said the toad, "am going to slobber these two flies that are coming my way, and then I'll go with you!"

So Billy ate his worms, and Mr. Garden Toad his flies, and then they happened over to the neighbor's backyard and spent the day. And I think they must have found an adventure because they stayed so long—don't you?

Two Indians and a cowboy from the Stampede bowed up fashionable Central Park West the other day in a big limousine with liveried chauffeur. The Indians were in native dress and war-paint and the cowboy had a red bandana handkerchief around his neck.

Of course the pedestrians expected to see the movie director with the camera bound pull up in the rear—but nothing like that happened. The limousine stopped at the majestic and picked up Prince Paul Troubetzkoy and shot into Central Park, thereby increasing the mystery.

Down the west drive it hurried along until it turned out at Sixty-Eighth street and then over to the Prince's studio. There the mystery exploded with a bang. The Indians and cowboy were simply hired to pose for a bit of sculpting the Prince is doing.

SEVERE BLOW DEALT GERMANS

ALLIES SCORE BIG GAINS ON WEST FRONT

BRITISH DRIVE WEDGE TO DEPTH OF MORE THAN A MILE; FRENCH ALSO PUSH FORWARD COMBLES FALLS

[BULLETIN] London, Sept. 26—The war office announced today, and are overcoming the resistance of the Germans on the Somme front, mans.

London, Sept. 26.—Attacking simultaneously on an arch of ten miles running from Martinpuich to the Somme, the British and French, forces have delivered another smashing blow on the German lines and pushed forward their positions for notable gains. From Martinpuich to Combles, a distance of six miles, the British have driven in their wedge to a depth of more than a mile, and captured in the attack the important strategic towns of Lesbœuf and Morval, the latter a scant mile north of Combles.

To the French fell the town of Rancourt, two miles east, and the outskirts of Fregicourt, in the vicinity of Bouchavesnes and to the south from the vicinity of the Canal Du Nord to the Somme positions were taken.

The capture of Morval by the British and of part of Fregicourt by the French apparently seals the fate of Combles, which the Germans have determinedly held for weeks despite the violent attacks thrown against it. The defenders of the town have been driven only the valley, a mile in width, running north, northeast, and in the traversing of which they must come under the guns of the British and French respectively from Morval and the vicinity of Fregicourt.

Another notable step in their approach upon Peronne is marked in the capture by the French of trenches in the Canal Du Nord region.

Except in France, there have been no important engagements on the various fronts. Berlin reports the repulse of Russian attacks in Volhynia Galicia and the Carpathian mountain. Petrograd is still silent as to the operations on the eastern front, but unofficial advice says the Russians have begun a new offensive on a large scale in the hope of putting down the counter attack of the Entente and piercing their front before winter sets in.

The Rumanians are still struggling for supremacy over the Teutonic allies in the Zurdak and Vulean passes of the Transylvanian Alps, but, according to Berlin, all their attacks have been repulsed.

In the Macedonian campaign continued reports of successes for the Entente allies come from their

HUGHES REPLIES TO WILSON ON ADAMSON 8 HOUR LAW

Dayton, Sept. 26—Charles F. Hughes left Dayton early today, the second day of his campaign through Ohio, for Cleveland, where he will speak tonight. The comparative rest to his voice yesterday, when he addressed only three audiences, as contrasted with the dozen or more daily while traveling through Indiana last week, had benefited him and while he was still somewhat hoarse his voice showed distinct improvement.

Mr. Hughes' program for today includes stops at Findlay and Bowling Green, Port Clinton, Sandusky, Elyria and Cleveland. He is to remain over night at Cleveland.

From Cleveland Mr. Hughes will journey East, making an address at Pittsburgh tomorrow and addresses at Trenton, N. J., and Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Thursday. The nominee's program also calls for addresses at Akron and Canton, O., tomorrow.

Hughes, addressing an audience in Memorial Hall here last night, replied to statements in President Wilson's speech of Saturday in connection with the passage of the Adamson law.

Mr. Hughes characterized as "most regrettable" the reference made by President Wilson to the eighty-cent gas case in New York as an instance where the courts had refused to declare a rate-fixing law unconstitutional in advance of determining how it would operate.

"It has been sought to draw an analogy," Mr. Hughes said, "between such a case and legislation. Questions of constitutionality come before the courts after the legislature has acted, presumably with knowledge of the facts and upon careful inquiry."

President Wilson's declaration that he considered the eight-hour day as a principle that was not arbitrable was commented on as follows:

Question Is Arbitrable

"It is said that the principle was not arbitrable is a very extraordinary statement, for eighteen years ago, I believe, in the passage of the act to promote conciliation and arbitration with respect to disputes between interstate commerce employers and carrier, there was provision made for arbitration with respect to hours of labor, conditions of employment as well as of wages. In a bill, which I believe was signed during this administration in July, 1913, the same provision, in I believe, substantially the same language was re-enacted in the law providing for arbitration with respect to wages, conditions of employment and hours of labor.

"Of course, the question whether in a particular case that conditions exist which should provide for a certain number of hours of labor is a question requiring the most earnest consideration. But no one, in this controversy to which I am now referring, had any idea of establishing an eight-hour day. The principle of the eight-hour day is not in any way involved.

Changed Wages Only

"I protest against any endeavor to confuse the thought of America by talking about an eight-hour day when nothing of the sort has been proposed, and the only thing that was proposed or enacted was a change in the schedule of wages.

"If there is anything more remarkable or regrettable than the effort to have it appear that an eight-hour work day is involved, it is an attempt to draw an analogy between the case of legislation of that description and the action of our courts in dealing with rate cases.

"It has been stated, for example, that when a rate is fixed by law, as a railroad rate, or as a telephone rate, and it is attacked as unconstitutional, because unconstitutional, that the supreme court you are able to make in such a case after a legislature in its wisdom and after examination measure unconstitutional until the effect of the operation of the rate had been disclosed.

"It has been sought to draw an analogy between such a case and legislation in advance of inquiry. Now, our system of government requires the careful study of facts, of a full understanding, and it is of the utmost importance that the thought of our people should be kept clear with respect to the working of the government. The courts have nothing to do with the question of the wisdom or policy of legislation.

"Questions of constitutionality come before the courts after the legislature has acted, presumably with knowledge of the facts and upon careful inquiry. The question that comes before the court is, whether after a legislature has previously done its full duty in examining the facts, dealing with the facts, according to its judgment that act of the legislature should be declared valid and of no effect because it exceeded legislative power.

"The question before the court power should be declared a nullity because it was against the constitution of the state or an act of congress or against the constitution of the United States.

tion of the United States.

"When any one comes into court charging that a rate act is contrary to the constitution of the state or of the United States, what does the court say to him? It says 'before we will perform this extraordinary function of declaring a legislative act void and of no effect, because unconstitutional we insist that you, the plaintiff in this case, shall prove law, as a railroad rate, or as a telephone rate, and it is attacked as unconstitutional, because unconstitutional, that the supreme court you are able to make in such a case after a legislature in its wisdom and after examination measure unconstitutional until the effect of the operation of the rate had been disclosed.

"When you come in before the court after a legislature in its wisdom and after examination measure unconstitutional until the effect of the operation of the rate had been disclosed, the court very properly says that it is not our province. You prove your case and if you have not got the facts to show in advance of the operation of the law that it operates to confiscate your property, we will not interfere with the operation of the law.

"What has that to do, that sound rule of judicial action, with the question of whether the legislature shall make the acts without any inquiry at all? That proposition only needs to be stated to receive its proper condemnation. An illustration was put forward of the eighty-cent gas rate in New York. It was suggested that the supreme court of the United States when the eighty-cent gas rate came before it, said that it would not interfere until the rate had been tested. Is that a precedent for legislative action without inquiry?

"Why, I was counsel for a committee of the New York legislature which investigated that matter for weeks and wrote an exhaustive report on the cost of making gas and on every matter of a national defense movement."

London, Sept. 26—General Constantine Moschopoulos, chief of staff of the Greek army, has resigned, according to a Reuters despatch from Athens.

General Moschopoulos commanded the Greek forces at Saloniki at the time of the landing of the French-Anglo force. He ordered the troops under his command to salute French and British officers and was generally reported to be friendly to the cause of the allies. In August General Moschopoulos was appointed chief of staff and in a statement given to the press expressed the hope that he could strengthen the good relations between Greece and the entente powers. "I think I can be a precious advocate of the entente," he said.

London, Sept. 26—The situation in Greece is most serious, says a Reuters despatch from Athens. Former Premier Venizelos, accompanied by Rear Admiral Condouriotis, commander-in-chief of the Greek navy, a number of superior officers, and his supporters left Athens early yesterday. They are bound probably for Crete, whence they are expected to go to Saloniki.

According to Athens despatches received here, M. Venizelos will issue a manifesto to the Greek people from Canea, Island of Crete, where he probably will direct the formation of Separatist government.

Besides admiral Condouriotis, the despatches add, those accompanying M. Venizelos include all the members of his former cabinet with the exception of M. Rakavim, minister of justice.

The proclamation of M. Venizelos, it is said, will invite King Constantine to put himself at the head of a national defense movement.

Show You Are A
Booster By Joining
In Big Love Feast

Creating a wave of prosperity, pent up enthusiasm and good old Portsmouth hospitality have spread out over the city, reaching the inmost nooks and crevices of the city and will culminate with a burst of grandeur Wednesday noon. For twelve long months, preparations have been made for the Greater 1916 Korn Karnival and tomorrow it will be formally opened. The merchants have made ready. Many of the stores in the city will be closed Wednesday between 11:30 and 12:30 o'clock so that the employees may take part in the Kommunity Kamp Dinner at Tracy park.

A meeting of the directors of the Business Men's Association and the various chairmen was held Monday evening and the final touches were put on the masterpiece of entertainment.

The Boy Scouts of the city, clad in khaki, have been engaged to clear the paths for the parades. Whistles at the various industrial plants will sound when the head of the parades start. Everyone will know just when it has started and there will be no impatient waiting.

From Wednesday noon until midnight Saturday night there will be something to amuse, entertain and interest.

On the opening day there will be the Kommunity Kamp dinner, Wednesday noon. The Ladies Aid Societies of eight churches will serve a luncheon to several thousand citizens, guests and visitors. All the boosters and folks with civic pride will be on hand to make it a great event. Reports have been made that the tickets for the Kommunity "feed" are selling fast.

It would be difficult to estimate the number that will participate in the big Industrial-Boosters' parade, which will march through the principal streets Wednesday evening, beginning at 7:30. There are six big divisions. Industrial Portsmouth will be truly portrayed here.

The second day of the Karnival will be just as big and as different as the first day. Thursday morning the wide awake and enthusiastic farmers of the county will hold the center of attention. They will show the citizens goods from Nature's show windows. In the afternoon Si Straus, chairman of the entertainment committee, will put on Quartet and Cake Walk contests. He has several entries and a good time is promised.

Lodge men from twenty-nine organizations have joined the Fraternal parade, which will start from Ninth and Chillicothe streets Thursday evening. All sorts of surprises and unique costumes and floats are promised by Grand Marshal Paul Esselborn. This year the fraternal parade will be the largest and best. Besides these attractions, special trains will bring thousands to the city to spend the evening.

Friday there will be the Children's parade in the afternoon and the automobile parade in the evening. Something going on each minute.

The Fiddlers' contest and the Buck and Wing dance contests will be staged on the Gallia street esplanade Saturday afternoon. As a final attraction the Masqued Patriotic parade will be given Saturday evening. It is the culmination of the whole week. The streets will be filled with gaily costumed and quaintly dressed people. The motley army of colors and costumes will be worth going miles to witness.

Besides the foregoing big features there will be four free attractions. Each one is a headliner. Si Straus, chairman of the committee, guarantees, and he has engaged most of the free shows for the Karnival for years.

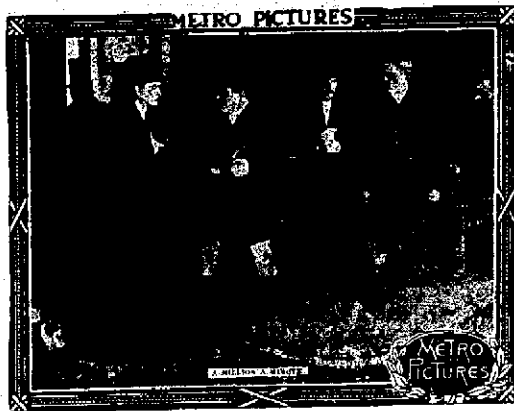

When business interferes with the Karnival, just close it up. This is the philosophy that the business men in charge of the Karnival have advanced. Hitch up the engine wagon; pile in the family and come each day.

Arrangements were made by the executive committee to welcome Hon. B. Bengough, consul general of Guatemala, who has been delegated by President Manuel Estrada Cabrera, of the Central American republic. The distinguished visitor will arrive Wednesday afternoon and will spend the rest of the week here.

Flags of his nation will be intertwined with the American banner in front of the reviewing stand as a mark of honor.

PAUL WALKER RUSHED HERE FOR OPERATION

Paul Walker, son of Mrs. W. S. Walker, of No. 1608 Fifth street, was stricken with appendicitis while visiting in Huntington, W. Va. He was brought to Portsmouth on a N. & W. train, removed to the family home and later Lynn's ambulance rushed him to Hempstead hospital for an immediate surgical operation. Word from his bedside Tuesday morning was that he was doing nicely.

Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne in "A Million a Minute," Columbia Today.

Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne, recognized as the foremost starring combination in the silent drama, will be seen on the screen here at the Columbia today in "A Million a Minute," a distinctive Metro wonderplay in five parts. The production is brimful of interest and presents a story of intrigue, romance, adventure, and mystery, together with a comedy relief, which makes for the most satisfactory entertainment. These stars are supported by a strong cast including Robert Cummings, Helen Dunbar, John Davidson, Charles Prince, Carl Brickert, Mrs. Walker, Jerome Wilson, William Bailey and Mary Moore.

In this production Miss Bayne has one of the best parts she has had since she came to motion pictures, about five years ago. She is seen in scores of big dramatic situations, and then there are lighter scenes where she is given an opportunity to display her versatile charms to the full. Mr. Bushman, too, has a strong role, and is seen to good advantage. He has many thrilling adventures and scenes which call forth the fullest range of his dramatic powers and, as always, he meets the demand upon his art in a manner that pleases.

There are many interesting scenes taken in and around New York, on shipboard and along Broadway, and the safe life and underworld of Paris are faithfully reproduced. Metro has spared no expense or effort to make a "A Million a Minute" one of the big features of the year. John W. Noble, who produced "Man and His Soul" and "The Wall Between" both starring Mr. Bushman and Miss Bayne, has also made an artistic and finished production of "A Million a Minute."

Doors And Windows Of Home Smashed; Police Are Looking For Walter Windle

The police have been instructed to arrest Walter Windle on sight, but he is believed to have skipped.

Windle went to the home of a woman living at Tenth and John streets, under the name of Mary Baker, at midnight, Monday, and when denied admission, tore down the doors and smashed all of the windows. The woman was taken into custody by Officer Albrecht, to be held as a witness against Windle, should he be captured.

According to information the police have, the couple have been living together, and drink bouts were frequent at the house, to the annoyance of neighbors.

OBITUARY

John P. Caskey.
Friends in this city were shocked Tuesday morning to hear the news of the sudden death of John P. Caskey, who died at his home on his farm near Seaman, Adams county, O., Monday evening at 7 o'clock.

Mr. Caskey had been a sufferer of heart trouble for sometime. It was only several days ago that friends in this city visited the Caskey home and found him hale and hearty.

Mr. Caskey was over sixty years of age. The family lived a number of years in this city. He was connected with the Harsha Flour Mills for several years and after leaving that plant went to the Portsmouth Cereal Company. He left the city several years ago to take up his home on the farm.

The deceased leaves his wife, Alma Caskey, and one son, George, who is in Columbus. He also has several brothers living near Seaman. Mrs. Albert Daehler, a niece of the deceased, received word of the death and funeral arrangements.

The funeral will be held from the home at one o'clock Wednesday.

George W. McClave Funeral

The funeral of George W. McClave, who died Monday morning at his home in Wheelersburg, will be held from the home at 12:30 o'clock Wednesday noon, instead of at two o'clock, as previously announced. Her Green Willis will be in charge of the services. Interment will be in the Wheelersburg cemetery.

Huntington To Send Down Big Delegation

Will H. McMurray, of the Jos. G. Reed Company, says all indications point to West Virginians coming to Portsmouth's Korn Karnival stronger than ever before.

Huntington alone can be counted on for a big delegation, he says. Traveling men this time have planned railroad stations and hotels, and the Karnival is surely well advertised, says Col. McMurray.

Local Republicans Back From Dayton

A company of veterans of the civil war, dressed in the old uniforms of that period, keeping step with the other marchers, was one of the main features of the parade given at Dayton Monday afternoon at the formal opening of the Republican campaign in Ohio, according to John F. Eckhart and Sheriff E. W. Smith, who attended the exercises from here, in company with Mayor H. H. Kaps and D. Willard Gustin.

The day was ideal and everything ran smoothly. The parade was a gigantic affair with sixteen bands and two drum corps. Another feature was the delegation from Green county. Each wore a wide green band on their hats with the name of the county printed in gold.

The greatest ovation ever witnessed by the local Republicans was paid to Hon. Charles E. Hughes, Republican presidential nominee.

During the morning a visit was made to the Soldiers' Home. In the afternoon a huge parade was held, terminating at the fair grounds where speeches were made. Hon. Charles E. Hughes, Governor Frank B. Willis, Hon. Myron T. Herrick and U. S. Senator Warren G. Harding delivered addresses.

The local party left Dayton Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the Eckhart machine and arrived in this city about 10:30.

No Arrests Were Made

Young Woman Grabbed By Man While Passing Lonely Lane

Was On Way From Work In This City;
Community Is Aroused

Much excitement was created at Fullerton, Ky., and vicinity, when word spread that Miss Alice Nichols, aged 22 years, a stenographer and daughter of Ed Nichols, prominent Tygart farmer, had been attacked by a man while on her way from her work in this city Monday evening. It was about dusk and Miss Nichols had just turned into a lane leading from off the pike south of Morton Hill, when a man grabbed her from behind and tried to detain her. She broke from his grasp and ran back to the Samuel Gammon home and gave the alarm. Persons there rushed to her assistance, and with neighbors began a search for the young woman's would-be assailant, but he had disappeared.

Miss Nichols was in a highly nervous state, and it was not until some time later that she was escorted to her home. Friends and neighbors hurried to Fullerton to notify Squire James Braden, but found that he was absent, having gone to Greenup. They then communicated with the Greenup authorities, who promised to act Tuesday.

Miss Nichols said she recognized the man who attacked her as a young married man, who lives not far from the Nichols home. Some of the neighbors are said to have known where he was in hiding the balance of the night, but did not reveal the same to the young woman's father, for fear he might kill him. Feeling is strong against the man because of his alleged act. He was said to have crossed to the Ohio side early Tuesday morning. The local police were notified and they began a search for him. Some person pointed him out to Officer Goodman at the N. & W. depot, but he succeeded in dodging Goodman.

relating to the propriety of that rate, and the legislature acted only after a most careful examination and exhaustive consideration of every fact involved. Think of that being cited as a precedent.

"When we have legislation attacked in the courts we have one principle of judicial action. When we have propositions submitted to the legislature we have principle of legislative action. Let no one confuse the American mind as to the principle of legislative action. It has been the same since the legislature began to sit. Indeed, if it is abandoned you might as well wind up your republic and appoint a dictator."

Mr. Hughes assailed the administration for "broken pledges and extravagant claims, especially with reference to having aided business. He reiterated that instead of clarifying the anti-trust law by definition, the administration had added "vague phrases" making the law more uncertain.

"I have long stood for proper definitions in legislation," Mr. Hughes said. "I think it is an ideal that we should endeavor to obtain. There has been too much—and there has been a great deal of it—in this administration of compromise phrases in the status apparently intended to mean one thing to one set of men to get their votes and another thing to another set of men to allay their fears."

SEEK SPECIAL SESSION OF LEGISLATURE TO DEAL WITH NEW YORK STRIKE PROBLEM

New York, Sept. 26.—Governor Whitman has promised to meet here this afternoon a committee of members of a legislature from the Manhattan and the Bronx to hear their request for a special session of the legislature to "deal with the situation" resulting from the threat of a general suspension of work Wednesday morning in sympathy with the striking car men. No method of dealing with the proposed strike was set forth by the committee in advance of the conference, but it was pointed out in resolutions which the committee adopted that the power of the public service commission was inadequate.

Hugh F. Ryan, an officer of the American Federation of Labor, and one of the directors of the strike movement, claimed today that assurances had been received by the labor leaders that 200,000 organized workers will quit work tomorrow morning.

A convention of the general officers of the National and International unions having headquarters here and representatives of the Central Labor Union, trade councils and local unions will be held Wednesday morning to organize and extend the suspension of work. Means of supplying financial support to strikers, and plans for holding demonstrations will be considered.

The building trade councils of Manhattan and the Bronx, representing about 833,000 workers, have postponed their response to the local for a suspension of work until Thursday.
